Family Tree Cookies

1 ½ cups firmly packed brown sugar
2/3 cup Crisco Shortening
1 tbsp water
1 tsp vanilla
2 eggs
1 ½ cups all purpose flour
1/3 cup cocoa
¼ tsp baking soda
½ tsp salt
2 cups miniature semi-sweet Hershey's Chipets

Icing
2 cups sugar
3 to 5 tbsp water

Decoration (optional)
Spearmint leaf-shaped gum drops
Sugar cookie leaves (cut from scraps of Sugar Shield cookies: optional)

Preheat oven to 375°F. Line cookie sheet with foil. Combine brown sugar, shortening, water and vanilla in large bowl. Beat at medium speed of electric mixer until well blended. Beat eggs into creamed mixture. Combine flour, cocoa, baking soda and salt. Mix into creamed mixture at low speed just until blended. Stir in Hershey's Chipets.

Refrigerate dough at least one hour. Keep refrigerated until ready to use. Roll dough into ropes ½ inch in diameter. Join 2 or 3 ropes to form tree trunk at bottom of cookie sheet. Shape remaining dough on foil lined baking sheets into tree branches.

Bake at 375°F for 9 to 11 minutes, or until cookie is set. DO NOT OVERBAKE. Cool 2 minutes on baking sheet. Remove cookie with foil from baking sheet cookie and cool completely. Peel foil from back of cookie. For icing, combine icing sugar and 3 tablespoons water. Mix to blend well. Add additional water, a little at a time, if icing is too stiff. Add additional icing sugar if icing is too thin. Place icing in pastry bag fitted with small round writing tip. Alternately, place in small resealable plastic bag. Snip very small hole off one corner of bag. Pipe names onto branches of trees. If using cookie leaves tint remaining icing with green food coloring. Ice sugar cookie leaves. Attach to branches with icing. Attach spearmint leaves to branches with icing (optional). Makes 2 tree cookies.

An Attractive Marriage

Public Ledger, January 5, 1899

Mt. Tabor church was the scene of a beautiful marriage on Wednesday, December 21st, 1898, at 6:30 o'clock p.m. The Church was brightly lighted.

Miss Anna STEM, of Stem, accompanied by Mr. Willie GOOCH, of Stem, marched up the aisle and as Miss Anna played the march the ushers, Messrs. Weldon BULLOCK and Elvin JONES, of Stem, Sammie MANGUM and Edgar VEASEY, of Hampton, followed by the waiters, Miss Lizzie MANGUM, of Hampton, with Eugene UMSTEAD, of Knap of Reeds; Miss Texanna GOOCH, with Eddie MOIZE, both of Stem; Miss Coza JONES with Tommie GOOCH, both of Stem; Miss Marie HATCHER, of Selma, with Davie HALL, of Ingleside; Miss Annie PARRISH, of Umbra, with Mr. Lyndover COZART, of Hampton. Then came the beautiful bride, Miss Lida COZART, with Miss Maggie HALL as maid of honor, and were met at the alter by the groom, Mr. J. S. BISHOP, with Mr. Marvin BISHOP as best man, and there they were united as one, Rev. M. A. ADAMS, of Lyon, officiating.

After the marriage was over the bride and groom accompanied by most of the waiters went to Mr. and Mrs. Will ALLEN's, near Stem, where they spent a few hours of enjoyment.

We hope that they may be crowned with happiness through their future lives and be very successful and all their "darkest clouds have silver linings".

Mt. Energy Morsels

Public Ledger, February 22, 1900

Sickness is prevailing to some extent in our community as measles is all the go.

Miss Marry FAUCETTE has closed her school here and returned to her home in Oxford.

Misses Maggie and Minnie HESTER, of Hester, spent the first Saturday with the writer.

Mrs. Mollie ROGERS and son, and Misses Lizzie and Minnie BYRD, of Beck, were pleasant visitors in this section some days ago.

Rev. J. W. ATKINSON filled his appointment at Pleasant Grove the first Saturday and Sunday, and preached impressive sermons.

Mr. J. T. BULLOCK, who has been on the sick list some time is much better, and now presides with great dignity over our debating society.

Miss Kate JONES has returned from a visit to friends near Wake Forest, to the delight of her friends. She was accompanied by Miss Kate HOLLAND of that place.

Reunion of the Descendants of Spencer R. O'Brian

Oxford Public Ledger, September 8, 1925

By: Judge A. W. Graham

Situated in a beautiful grove of magnificent white oaks, a short distance west of the public highway from Stem to Berea, is the homestead of the later Spencer A. O'BRIAN, which in the partition of his estate was allotted to his daughter, Mrs. Julia Gertrude PARROTT, the wife of E. W. PARROTT. There Mr. and Mrs. PARROTT live with nine of their children, two of the older sons having chosen their life partners and set up establishments of their own.

A happy thought occurred to some members of the O'BRIAN clan, that it would be well to have a reunion at the old home of the O'BRIAN'S, descendants of Spencer R. O'BRIAN, the grand old soldier and Christian gentleman, so invitations were sent to all and with few exceptions were accepted, all welcoming the opportunity to meet again under the old roof tree where they were reared, under the noble Christian influence of Mr. O'BRIAN and his consecrated wife.

Mr. O'BRIAN was a remarkable man in his day, wounded at Malvern Hill, Chancellorsville, Winchester and leaving a leg on the battlefield of Cedar Run, he was taken to a northern prison and at the close of the war, he was paroled and came home, as most of our boys did, without a dollar in the world. By his industry and integrity he made a comfortable living with the aid of his devoted wife, and raised a large family of children and at the time of his death his estate was estimated to be worth nearly $20,000. He attended all the wood-choppings and barn-raising in the community and it was said of him that, notwithstanding the handicap of having but one leg, no man could carry up the corner of a tobacco barn and fit the logs more rapidly and neatly than Spencer O'BRIAN. He was an active and devoted member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, and a man of strict integrity.

It is no wonder, then, that the sterling qualities of father and mother were instilled into that large assembly of children, grandchildren and great, grandchildren, who assembled at the old homestead on Sunday, the 30th day of August, 1925, to live over again the good old days when they were young, and to hear the reminiscences of the older heads of how things were done in the days of long ago.

In addition to the descendants of Mr. and Mrs. O'BRIAN, we were fortunate enough in having Miss Nannie CURRIN, 78 years old; Mr. Richard H. CURRIN, 76 years old; Mr. Amos CURRIN, 70 years old; and Mrs. Amos CURRIN, sisters and brothers of Mrs. O'BRIAN, who could give the younger generations much information about how things were done before and during the war.

A most beautiful picnic dinner was spread on long tables under the beautiful oaks in the yard and the way in which it disappeared was proof positive that Spencer O'BRIAN did not leave a race of dyspeptics behind him. In fact the temptation to-over-indulgence was never greater. A more delicious, abundant repast was never served, and it was a beautiful tribute to the excellent housewives who furnished it.

The writer has, in his time, attended many such happy occasions, but he has never seen a happier, more joyous, more wholesome set of young people in all his wanderings, and he could not help thinking how fortunate the young man would be who could induce any one of those glad-hearted beautiful girls to share her life with him.

In addition to the various members of the family and other relatives, numbering more than 75, there were more than 32 friends and neighbors invited to share the festivities of the occasion, and how much they appreciated it was shown by the lateness of the hour when the party broke up and wended their ways to their several homes.

A list of all the descendants of Mr. and Mrs. O'BRIAN was taken, those who were present and those who were absent, from unavoidable causes, or who had passed away. It was found that there were of his children and their wives present 11, and 2 absent, and 3 had preceded him to the grave. Of his grandchildren, 11 were present, 3 were unavoidably detained, 3 being in Canada, and 8 had gone to meet him on "that beautiful shore". Of his great-grandchildren, 9 were present, making a total of the descendants and their wives and husbands of 77. Of his own children, one and his wife were absent and two had died in infancy.

Descendants of Spencer R. O'BRIAN and Mary Frances Currin O'BRIAN, his wife, present at the reunion, at the old homestead, Sunday August 30th, 1925:

- Cornelia CRITCHER and Robert T. CRITCHER, her husband.
- Annie, 31 years old, Louis DANIEL, her husband, son of J. Robt. DANIEL.
- James DANIEL, 10 years old.
- Samuel DANIEL, 9 years old.
- Cornelia Hannah DANIEL.
- Samuel CRITCHER, died at 12 years of age.
- Gertrude CRITCHER, died at 3 years of age.
- Robert Henry CRITCHER, 27 years old, now in Canada, not married.
- William Spencer CRITCHER, 25 years old, lives with parents, not married.
- Myrtle, 23 years old, and her husband Crawford WILLIFORD, son of L. T. WILLIFORD.
- Frances, 22 years old and her husband, Maynard DANIEL, son of C. W. DANIEL.

How to Figure a Birthdate

Remember this number 8870

This is not an error: It is the number to remember when you want to find the birthdate of someone when you only have the date of death and age.

How do you figure the birthdate?

Suppose the person died May 6, 1889, at the age of 71 years, 7 months, 9 days.

1. Write the year, month, day as :           18890506
2. Subtract the age at death:               710709
3. This gives the figure:                   18179797
4. Now subtract 8870:                       8870
5. The result is:                           18170927

Year 1817, 9th month (Sept), 27th day or 27 Sept. 1817

Try it, it does work.

James Theodore Cheatham

Oxford Public Ledger, April 6, 1906

This Good Citizen Passed Away Last Thursday Morning

In contrast to the rule of primogeniture, which prevails in England, it has often been said the land in this country rarely remains in the same family for three generations. A striking exception to this rule is the beautiful CHEATHAM homestead, situated four miles east of Oxford on the waters of Popular Creek, which was settled by James CHEATHAM in the 18th century and has been owned by the family for nearly 150 years. From this house have gone out men and women who have exerted an influence for good in church and state, not only in this state but in far distant states. Of all those none were more worthy than James Theodore CHEATHAM, son of James CHEATHAM, the second, and his wife Rebecca CREWS were born the 10th day of August, 1844. Of a bright, sunny disposition, under the teaching of a saintly mother amid the happy surroundings of his ancestral home he grew up to manhood with high ideals and with a full appreciation of the duties and responsibilities of life.

At the age of seventeen he volunteered for the defense of his country in the great civil war, and enlisted in Co. G. 30th Reg. N.C.T. which was considered one of the best regiments in all the gallant land of Southern heroes. Being a splendid shot he was soon assigned to the sharpshooter corp of the brigade. Firm of purpose, cheerful under privation and hardship he was never known to complain; brave as the bravest he made an ideal soldier. He participated in the battles around Richmond, Sharpesburg, Fredricksburg, Chancellorsville, and on the faithful field of Gettysburg, was severely wounded by a piece of shell that had already passed through the body of his Lieut. Colonel. As he could not be moved he was captured by the enemy and taken to Elmira, New York, where so many Southern boys, unable to stand the rigors of a northern climate and the hardship of prison, yielded up their lives.

But his temperate life, cheerful disposition and good constitution brought him up and enabled him to withstand all privations until the war ended. He reached home in June 1865, and found conditions greatly changed since he marched so gaily away in 1862. But nothing daunted he went diligently to work to help build up the waste places, and make a support for the loved ones, and soon became known as one of the best farmers in the county. His intelligent conduct of the farm shows what can be done with Granville County land, and is an incentive to all young men who may wish to make their living by cultivation of the soil.

On the first day of December 1868 he married Miss Elizabeth HAMLIN, of Petersburg, Va., and their lives certainly furnished a complete refutation of the latter day slander that marriage was a failure. No more shining exemplification of the beauties of a christian home can be found that what furnished by the lives of Mr. CHEATHAM and his devoted wife. Hospitable, kind and generous, a warm welcome was extended to friend and stranger alike and all who came within the benign influence of that happy home could see and feel that their lives were guided by some fixed purpose, and that their vision was not circumscribed by earthly things.

In their children they were peculiarly blessed, never having had a case of serious sickness in the family, and all ten of them living today useful citizens of the State and members of the church.

For weeks, a six-year old lad kept telling his first-grade teacher about the baby brother or sister that was expected at his house. One day the mother allowed the boy to feel the movements of the unborn child. The six-year old was obviously impressed, but he made no comment. Furthermore, he stopped telling his teacher about the impending event. The teacher finally sat the boy on her lap and said, "Tommy, whatever has become of that baby brother or sister you were expecting at home?" Tommy burst into tears and confessed, "I think Mommy ate it!"

History of Pomfret and Beasley Families

Submitted by Carol Beasley Roberts, daughter of Samual Owen Beasley

John POMFRET immigrated from England to America prior to 1700 settling first in Connecticut. There is a town named for him where he settled (Pomfret). The POMFRETS later moved to King William County, Virginia. Apparently, John POMFRET had only one son. John Jr. was born February 2, 1720 and died May 6, 1814. John Jr. married Ann HUNT. They had a large family and later moved to Granville County, North Carolina, near Oak Hill School. Their daughter, Sally POMFRET, married Stephen BEASLEY on March 10, 1787. The BEASLEYS also came from England to Connecticut, moved to King William County, Virginia then to Granville County. Stephen BEASLEY was born in 1765. They both are buried in the cemetery near Oak Hill School. Sally and Stephen had five (5) children – Ann Alexander, John P., Robert, Fleming, and Stephen.

Fleming BEASLEY, my great grandfather, married Mariah H. THOMAS on October 27, 1824. Their children were Stephen H., Fleming, John, W. R. (Rip), and a daughter, Mildred. She was born December 13, 1838. Stephen H., my grandfather was born about 1842. His death date could not be located.

Rip, Fleming and Stephen BEASLEY all served in the Civil War. Stephen H. entered into service June 17, 1861, a Corporal C., 1-23 Regiment. No discharge date was given. He was wounded in his hip. My father used to tell us about it. Fleming S. entered service April 22, 1861. He was killed at Malvern Hill on July 1, 1863. W. R. (Rip), a Second Lieutenant, entered service March 10, 1862 and discharged June 10, 1862. He was a druggist and worked in Colonel Rusk MITCHELL's drug store. Colonel MITCHELL was the grandfather of Charlotte V. Britt HOBBS. Rip married a Miss MORRIS. Mildred first married a LANE, and later married a BLACKWELL. Stephen H. married Susan Ann CLARK on June 18, 1868 in Granville County. They had nine (9) children:

- Fleming S. – born Sept 2, 1869, died – Nov 1, 1954
- Lula – lived only a few months
- John L. – born May 5, 1874, died – May 19, 1949
- Anna – born Feb 16, 1876, died – Feb. 20, 1949
- George W. – born April 1, 1879, died – Feb 2, 1936
- James Polk, my father, born – April 8, 1880, died – Feb. 16, 1944
- Stephen H. – born Oct. 13, 1883, died – July 18, 1942
- Mariah Elizabeth – born Jan. 24, 1885, died – Sept. 9, 1966
- Susan Gray – born Feb 16, 1888, died – Jan. 2, 1972

All of the above (except James P. and John L. BEASLEY) are buried in the Hester Baptist Church cemetery. James and John are buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Oxford, North Carolina.

Fleming S. BEASLEY married three times. His first wife was Mollye HARRIS and they had five children. His second wife was Mary WEST and they had five children. He and his third wife, Bell WEST, had no children. John L. BEASLEY married Cora CURRIN and they had five children. Anna BEASLEY married James ROBERSON and had eight children. George BEASLEY never married. James Polk BEASLEY married Mary Elizabeth COLE on December 25, 1904 and they had nine children. On October 16, 1928 he married a second time to Ada Bell Cullom WILSON (her second marriage also) and they had one child. Ada Bell

CULLOM had three children from her first marriage to Louis A. WILSON. Stephen H. BEASLEY married Mary FLOYD and had 11 children. Mariah Elizabeth BEASLEY married James E. COLE and had eight children. Susan Gray BEASLEY married Charlie COLE and had six children.

James Polk BEASLEY's wife, Mary Elizabeth COLE, was born January 21, 1880. She was the daughter of Haley Fleming COLE and Mary Ann Whitt COLE who was born near South Boston, Virginia, and moved to North Carolina about 1902. James E. COLE and Charlie COLE were Mary Elizabeth's brothers. Mary Elizabeth Cole BEASLEY died September 10, 1926. She, James Polk BEASLEY, James E. COLE and Charlie COLE are buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Oxford, NC.

The nine children of James Polk BEASLEY and Mary Elizabeth COLE are:

1. Annie May – born April 27, 1906, died – July 1, 1986. Annie May married Wayne C. JOHNSON December 9, 1925 and had two children.
2. Samuel Owen – born November 17, 1907, died – October 13, 1981. Samuel Owen married Mary Beatrice PUCKETT December 27, 1927 and had six children.
3. Mattie Leigh – born November 4, 1909, died – November 4, 1995. Mattie Leigh married John Pearson HARRIS November 24, 1970. No children.
4. James Fleming – born August 20, 1912, died – December 12, 1971. James Fleming married, divorced and had one child.
5. Isabel Elizabeth – born August 28, 1914, died – April 26, 1989. Isabel Elizabeth married Robert Jackson MORGAN March 28, 1931 and had four children.
6. Erna Sue – born September 19, 1916, died – September 25, 1979. Erna Sue married George L. FAUCETTE December 20, 1933 and had three children.
7. Daisy Thomas – born April 23, 1919, died – November 6, 1981. Daisy Thomas married Louis A. WILSON November 1, 1939 and had five children. She moved to California with her husband and died there November 6, 1981.
8. Fannie Lucille – born September 15, 1920, died – January 8, 1978. Fannie Lucille married Herman A. CURL December 23, 1950 but had no children.
9. Bernice Juanita – born May 20, 1923. Bernice Juanita married Landis O'BRIANT December 22, 1945 and moved to Raleigh, NC.

The one child of James Polk BEASLEY and Ada Bell Cullom Wilson BEASLEY is Jean Charlotte – born November 20, 1930. Jean Charlotte married Norman Samuel JONES May 14, 1955 and had four children.

All children except Daisy and Juanita live in Oxford or Granville County, North Carolina. Samuel Owen's widow, Beatrice, sold her home and moved near her daughter who lives near Louisburg, NC.

Ada Bell Cullom Wilson BEASLEY had three sons with Louis Amos WILSON:

1. Francis Croxton WILSON, born March 29, 1913, died August 5, 1990. He married Lula Edna COLE March 23, 1935. Lula's mother, Susan Gray COLE, was sister to James Polk BEASLEY. Her father was brother to Mary Elizabeth COLE, thus making Lula and Mattie Beasley HARRIS double first cousins. Francis and Lula had three sons. Lula is still living at this writing.

2. Louis Ambrose WILSON was born February 28, 1914. He married Daisy Thomas BEASLEY November 1, 1939. She died November 6, 1981. They had five children, four sons and one daughter. Louis' mother, Ada Bell Cullom WILSON, married James Polk BEASLEY thus making Louis and Daisy step brother and sister. No other relation. In 1984 Louis married a second time. This time to Dora Louise Clatte (?) KARR. Dora is Louis' daughter's mother-in-law. They are living at this writing in Long Beach, California.
3. Charlie McIntosh WILSON was born November 5, 1917 and died October 5, 1992. He married Leona Pearl DEMENT in 1957. Leona is still living at this writing.

23rd Psalm for Genealogists

Genealogy is my pastime, I shall not stray
It maketh me to lie down and examine tombstones
It leadeth me into still courthouses
It restoreth my Ancestral Knowledge
It leadeth me in the paths of census records and ships' passenger lists for my surnames' sake
Yea, though I walk through the shadows of research libraries and microfilm readers
I shall fear no discouragement, for a strong urge is within me
The curiosity and motivation, they comforteth me
It demandeth preparation of storage space for the acquisition of countless documents
It anointeth my head with burning midnight oil
My family group sheets runneth over
Surely, birth, marriage, and death dates shall follow me all the days of my life
And I shall dwell in the house of a family history-seeker forever.

A family decided to compile a family history, a legacy for their children and grandchildren. They hired a fine author. Only one problem arose - how to handle that great-uncle George, who was executed in the electric chair.

The author said he could handle the story tactfully. The book appeared. It said "Great-uncle George occupied a chair of applied electronics at an important government institution, was attached to his position by the strongest of ties, and his death came as a great shock."

Epidemics in U.S. – 1657 – 1918

*Information obtained from the Internet from the South Bend, IN Area Genealogical Society
April, 1996*

Epidemics have always had a great influence on people – and thus influencing, as well, the genealogists trying to trace them. Many cases of people disappearing from records can be traced to dying during an epidemic or moving away from the affected area. Some of the major epidemics in the United States are listed below:

- 1657 Boston: Measles
- 1687 Boston: Measles
- 1690 New York: Yellow Fever
- 1713 Boston: Measles
- 1729 Boston: Measles
- 1732-33 Worldwide: Influenza
- 1738 South Carolina: Smallpox
- 1739-40 Boston: Measles
- 1747 Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania and South Carolina: Measles
- 1759 North America (areas inhabited by white people): Measles
- 1760-61 North America and West Indies: Influenza
- 1772 North American: Measles
- 1775 North America (especially hard in New England): Epidemic (Unknown)
- 1775-76 Worldwide: Influenza
- 1781-82 Worldwide: Influenza (one of worst flu epidemics)
- 1783 Delaware (Dover): “Extremely fatal” bilious disorder
- 1788 Philadelphia and New York: Measles
- 1793 Vermont: Influenza and a “putrid fever”
- 1793 Virginia: Influenza (kills 500 people in 5 counties in 4 weeks)
- 1793 Philadelphia: Yellow Fever (one of worst)
- 1793 Pennsylvania (Harrisburg & Middletown): many unexplained deaths
- 1794 Philadelphia: Yellow Fever
- 1796-97 Philadelphia: Yellow Fever
- 1798 Philadelphia: Yellow Fever (one of worst)
- 1803 New York: Yellow Fever
- 1820-23 Nationwide: “Fever” (starts on Schuylkill River, PA & spreads)
- 1831-32 Nationwide: Asiatic Cholera (brought by English emigrants)
- 1832 New York and other major cities: Cholera
- 1837 Philadelphia: Typhus
- 1841 Nationwide: Yellow Fever (especially severe in South)
- 1847 New Orleans: Yellow Fever
- 1847-48 Worldwide: Influenza
- 1848-49 North America: Cholera
- 1850 Nationwide: Yellow Fever
- 1850-51 North America: Influenza
- 1852-51 Nationwide: Yellow Fever (New Orleans: 8,000 die in summer)
- 1855 Nationwide (many parts): Yellow Fever
- 1857-59 Worldwide: Influenza (One of disease’s greatest epidemics)
- 1860-61 Pennsylvania: Smallpox

Good News!! We can now do one query for you per quarter. I just know that you are curious about some of your relatives. You simply can't have found out all you want to know about them. This is a free service that comes with your membership and sometimes you get great responses and sometimes nothing, but you can try. We have members in 48 of our 50 states in the USA and someone in the 48 states might have just the information you are looking. We need to receive the queries by the dates above so that we may plan for the journal. If you think your query is too long, please send it anyway and we can make adjustments as needed for space purposes. But please, send them.

 Ship Ahoy! – Dropping into a Hotel the other day up street, to take a glass of -----Ice water----- (for we never drink strong beverage – only when we feel like it) – our eyes chanced to meet with the first number of a neatly printed paper entitled the “Oxford Mercury”, published by Dr. W. E.
 Wright, and edited by C. H. Wiley, Esq., a young gentleman of the Bar, whose talents bid fair to class him with the most distinguished writers and debaters in this country. Mr. Wiley is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he gained for himself many bright laurels for his classic lore. We recognise in the Editor of the “Mercury” an ability to cope with the ablest Editors. – Milton Chronicle.

Wilton Whisperings

Public Ledger, January 5, 1899

The corn crop is not as good as was expected.

Mr. H. B. JENKINS, of Nash county, spent a few days with us recently.

The Banks people are glad to have Rev. G. B. PERRY as their preacher another year.

Mr. C. D. MORRIS has recently covered his granery and stables with steel roofing.

Miss Ann Christian LYON, of Creedmoor, visited relatives, and friends around Wilton recently.

Glad to say Leo has recovered from the shock of Nov. 8th and is able to whisper again.

Leo is sorry to state that Miss Elsie LAWRENCE, who has been afflicted so long, does not improve very fast.

Our people want the grape vine telegraph re-established so we can have connection with the outside world.

The many friends of Mrs. L. B. FREEMAN sympathize with her in her sad affliction. She has been bed ridden for about twelve months.

Our wide awake merchant and miller, J. W. HARRIS, is contemplating moving to Norfolk, Va., to carry on a larger business and a syndicate is being formed to rent or purchase his outfit at Wilton.

Messrs. R. W. HARRIS and J. W. FLOYD are cutting our shucks, pea vines, etc., with a steam cutter. Dr. J. A. and Mr. C. D. MORRIS had a large quantity of food cut. It occupied the large No. 16 Ohio cutter all of one day.

We are in the middle of hog killing. Mrs. A. MORRIS, two, 426, 376; C. D. MORRIS, two, 365, 340; E. G. MORRIS, seven averaging 200; J. W. FLOYD, five averaging 216; W. P. LYON, six at eleven months old averaging 177, etc., etc.

A few Saturdays ago while Mr. A. P. OVERTON, clerk for Mr. T. L. CANNADY, was out a negro boy entered the window of the store and captured about $25. He was chased by Mr. Taz BLACKLEY and threw part of the money in the corner of a fence and took to the woods. Seventeen dollars of the money was recovered.

Christmas has come and gone and the little folk enjoyed a visit from Santa Claus who came laden with nice things. Seeing them caper and enjoy the toys, etc., that Santa brought carried us back to long years ago when we did just as our little ones do now. Let them enjoy the present for soon, ah! soon, they will be cumbered with the cares of life. A happy new year to the editor and correspondents.

Leo

Census Taker

It was the first day of census, and all through the land;
The pollster was ready ... a black book in hand.
He mounted his horse for a long dusty ride;
His book and some quills were tucked close by his side.
A long winding ride down a road barely there;
Toward the smell of fresh bread wafting, up through the air.

The woman was tired, with lines on her face;
And wisps of brown hair she tucked back into place.
She gave him some water ... as they sat at the table;
And she answered his questions ... the best she was able.
He asked of her children... Yes, she had quite a few;
The oldest was twenty, the youngest not two.

She held up a toddler with cheeks round and red; his sister, she whispered, was napping in bed.
She noted each person who lived there with pride;
And she felt the faint stirrings of the wee one inside.
He noted the sex, the color, the age...
The marks from the quill soon filled up the page.

At the number of children, she nodded her head;
And saw her lips quiver for the three that were dead.
The places of birth she "never forgot";
Was it Kansas? or Utah? or Oregon ... or not?
They came from Scotland, of that she was clear;
But she wasn't quite sure just how long they'd been here.

They spoke of employment, of schooling and such;
They could read some and write some .. though really not much.
When the questions were answered, his job there was done;
So he mounted his horse and he rode toward the sun.
We can almost imagine his voice loud and clear;
"May God bless you all for another ten years."

Now picture a time warp ... its' now you and me;
As we search for the people on our family tree.
We squint at the census and scroll down so slow;
As we search for that entry from long, long ago.
Could they only imagine on that long ago day;
That the entries they made would affect us this way?

If they knew, would they wonder at the yearning we feel;
And the searching that makes them so increasingly real.
We can hear if we listen the words they impart;
Through their blood in our veins and their voice in our heart

Commissioners Meet
Oxford Public Ledger, April 6, 1906

Jurors Drawn for April Term of Court
- School Elections Ordered

The Board of County Commissioners were in session Monday and Tuesday with all the members present.

It was ordered that John ROSS and Betsy ROSS be stricken from outside pauper list.

In settlement with Superintendent WALTERS of the County Home it was found that the county was due $138.81 which was ordered paid.

Anna KIMBALL and Elizabeth SATTERWHITE were granted a special allowance of $3 each of account of destitute conditions.

Ordered that M. HODGE be put on outside pauper list at $1 per month.

The special election ordered to be held at WILLIFORD's store, Walnut Grove Township, on April 10th, was ordered postponed on account of the resignation of the Registrar, and will be held at the above named place on the 15th of May, 1906.

An election was ordered in Public School District No. 8, Dutchville Township, at Wilkins, on the 7th day of May 1906, to ascertain the will of the people as to the levying a special annual tax for educational purposes to supplement the regular school appropriation.

There was also an election ordered to be held at Creedmoor on May 19th, 1906, School District No. 9, Dutchville Township, to ascertain the will of the people as to the levying of special tax to supplement the regular appropriation for school purposes.

General B. S. ROYSTER was appointed a committee to assist Chairman C. F. CREWS in settling with the county Treasurer.

The following list takers for the different townships were elected:

Fishing Creek	J. R. RENN
Brassfield	W. P. WHITE
Dutchville	R. G. STEM
Tally Ho	E. C. ALLEN
Walnut Grove	B. F. HESTER
Oak Hill	G. B. ROYSTER
Sassafras Fork	S. J. CURRIN
Salem	B. I. BREEDLOVE
Oxford	S. V. ELLIS

There were a number of applicants in a few of the townships for these places and consequently some people are disappointed especially in Oxford.
