Genealogist's Christmas Eve (T'was the night before Christmas)

'Twas the night before Christmas When all through the house not a creature was stirring, not even my spouse.

The dining room table with clutter was spread With pedigree charts and with letters which said... "Too bad about the data for which you wrote; Sank in a storm on an ill-fated boat." Stacks of old copies of wills and such Were proof that my work had become too much. Our children were nestled all snug in their beds, While visions of sugarplums danced in their heads. And I at my table was ready to drop From work on my album with photos to crop. Christmas was here, and such was my lot That presents and goodies and toys I'd forgot. Had I not been busy with grandparents' wills, I'd not have forgotten to shop for such thrills, While others bought gifts to bring Christmas cheers, I'd spent time researching those birth dates and years.

While I was thus musing about my sad plight, A strange noise on the lawn gave me such a great fright.

Away to the window I flew in a flash, Tore open the drapes and yanked up the sash. When what with my wondering eyes should appear, But an overstuffed sleigh and eight small reindeer.

Up to the house top the reindeer they flew, With a sleigh full of toys and 'ole Santa Claus, too. And then in a twinkle, I heard on the roof The prancing and pawing of thirty-two hoofs. As I drew in my head, and bumped it on the sash, Down the cold chimney fell Santa--KER-RASH!

"Dear" Santa had come from the roof in a wreck, And tracked soot on the carpet, (I could wring his short neck!)

Spotting my face, good 'ole Santa could see I had no Christmas spirit you'd have to agree. He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work And filled all the stockings, (I felt like a jerk). Here was Santa, who'd brought us such gladness and joy: When I'd been too busy for even one toy.

He spied my research on the table all spread "A genealogist!" He cried! (My face was all red!) "Tonight I've met many like you," Santa grinned, As he pulled from his sack a large book he had penned.

I gazed with amusement--the cover it read Genealogy Lines for Which You Have Plead.

"I know what it's like as a genealogy bug." He said as he gave me a great Santa hug.

"While the elves make the sleigh full of toys I now carry, I do some research in the North Pole Library!

A special treat I am thus able to bring, To genealogy folk who can't find a thing."

"Now off you go to your bed for a rest, I'll clean up the house from this genealogy mess."

As I climbed up the stairs full of gladness and glee, I looked back at Santa who'd brought much to me.

While settling in bed, I heard Santa's clear whistle, To his team, which then rose like the down of a thistle.

And I heard him exclaim as he flew out of sight, "Family history is Fun! Merry Christmas! Goodnight!"

There is a very fine line between "hobby" and "mental illness."

Town and County

Public Ledger, January 9, 1890

What is Transpiring Around and About Us, in Town and County – The Movements and Doings of People You Know, Etc.

Dr. J.M. HAYES is now pleasantly located in the new URSY building up stairs.

The Revenue officials have seized the distillery of J.A. NORWOOD near Buchanan.

We wish each and every one of our readers a happy, prosperous and well spent year.

Has the move that was made a few weeks ago concerning the building of a hotel in Oxford collapsed?

Fayette WASHINGTON, who is now living in Florence, S.C., spent the holidays with his parents near Stem.

Our clever young friend, Mr. H.H. BLACKLEY, is now connected with LOCKHART'S Banner warehouse in Durham.

We learn that Mr. J.R. CUTHREIL has rented the KINGSBURY house and will open up a hotel on the European plan.

Messrs. HUNDLEY Bros., our excellent contractors, are now at work erecting the new passenger depot of the R&D RR.

The neat and attractive Miss Hallie LANDIS, who is teaching school at Bowling Green, Va., spent the holidays in Oxford.

Mr. John MEADOWS, one of our prominent leaf dealers, was summoned last week to the bedside of a sick brother in Texas.

After an absence of 30 years, Mr. Geo. F. TAYLOR is on a visit to his brother, Mr. H.A. TAYLOR. He resides in Jacksonville, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie NEAL entertained some of their fiends in handsome style during the Christmas holidays.

DAVIS & GREGORY, of the Johnson warehouse, started off the New Year with a shipment of three car loads of tobacco from South Carolina.

Sheriff James A. CREWS has appointed Mr. D.A. MOORE jailer. This is a good selection. Mr. MOORE will make a competent officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie MITCHELL are now snugly ensconced in their new home on Broad street. It is their first experience in housekeeping.

The young people of Oxford had a joyous and happy time during the holidays. Germans, parties, sociables and candy stews were freely indulged in.

Mr. Nathan T. DANIEL left a few days ago for Florence, S.C., to assist Mr. F.M. ROGERS, Jr., the tobacco king of that State in handling his immense crop.

The big-hearted Col. W.F. BEASLEY turned up as usual on New Year's day with an immense quantity of presents for the boys and girls at the Orphan Asylum.

Mr. Jim LAWRENCE, who has so successfully wielded the yard stick behind the counters of Messrs. HART & LAWRENCE, has gone to Petersburg, Va., to try the wholesale trade.

Mrs. J.A. STRADLEY has severed her connection with the Female Seminary. She has devoted a great many years to teaching and has assisted in the education of a large number of young ladies.

Mr. W. RAKER of Raker City, paid Oxford a visit a few days ago. He was a delegate to the Asheville Convention, on the part of the county, but owing to extreme sickness was unable to stand.

On to Texas is the watchword with some of our young men. Messrs. Clem CARRINGTON and J.T. THOMAS left a few days ago for that State to try and better their financial conditions. We learn several more will leave soon.

Mr. J.T. STRAYHORN has purchased and removed into the neat cottage lately occupied by Rev. J.H. HALL on High street. Mr. STRAYHORN is a good lawyer and we are pleased to know that he is building up a good practice.

We are informed that not one fourth of the tobacco crop has been marketed. Prices are now on the up grade, and our market is in full blast and our warehousemen are determined to get the largest prices possible during 1891. Farmers, stand by your county town.

We are sorry to chronicle the death of Mr. Henry W. JONES, which sad event occurred near Tally Ho on Dec. 26th. He was well known in the county having been deputy sheriff under Col. ROGERS and made a most efficient and trustworthy officer. He was warm-hearted and was highly esteemed by all who know him.

Jeff DANIEL issued 245 marriage licenses during 1890.

Mr. R.M. JEFFREYS and family, of Skipwith, Va., visited Oxford Tuesday.

Dr. A.J. DALBY and Mr. T.D. WALLER were present at the opening of the Legislature in Raleigh.

We are pleased to note that the Bank of J.C. COOPER & Sons has been one of the State depositories.

The Board of Commissioners were in session on Monday and a large amount of business was transacted.

On account of insufficient patronage the Richmond & Danville Railroad has discontinued the station at Lewis.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. B.A. ELLIOTT, who has been quite sick since her return from Wilmington is much improved.

Messrs. HUNDLEY Bros. will erect a neat and attractive cottage for Mrs. T.L. HARGROVE on her lot fronting the Oxford Female Seminary.

The steeple of the Orphan Asylum which has been in unsound condition for some time has been taken down and will be replaced by a dome.

Mr. W.H. CARROLL, of University Station, after spending several days with his daughter, Mrs. R. BROUGHTEN, returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. C.G. ROYSTER, of Bullock, was in town a few days ago with a big bag of money. The money panic must not have struck his section a hard blow.

Capt. W.A. BOBBITT, our most worthy Superior Court Clerk has been very busy for several days making out briefs of appeals to the Supreme Court.

A very popular actress of Southern birth will hold the boards at the Opera House on the 25th. Miss Alberta GALLATIN stands well in her profession and will play "Ingomar."

Judge W.T. CLEMENT was twice honored in December. He was elected inspector of small arms of the 3rd Regiment, with rank as Captain, and Noble Grand of the largest Odd Fellow's Lodge in the State.

We made a mistake in the statement of Mr. J.L. HALL as to his loss at the late fire. Some persons circulated the report that it did not amount to $250. We had it $25 instead of $350. As to his insurance he did not have a cent on the property.

Mr. T.D. WALLER, the old moss-back batchelor, is not President of the Oxford Batchelors' Club. He will be impeached at the next conclave for commenting upon the many attractions that surrounded one of the fair sex. It is said Gus HALL will succeed Mr. WALLER as President as he is unquestionably entitled to the honor.

Mr. A.T. RENNIE, who has been with Messrs. Geo. A. ENDLEY & Co., of this place, for the past two years, has accepted a position with Messrs. A. LANDIS & Son, Oxford, N.C. Mr.

RENNIE is a most excellent young man and was unusually popular with our people. We wish him much success in his new home. – Chase City Progress

Mr. Charles B. JONES, a large leaf dealer and brother of Mr. D'Orsey JONES, died in Oxford Dec. 26th. He was a young man of fine attainments and was well known throughout Virginia and North Carolina, and hosts of friends mourn the loss of this warm-hearted genial gentleman. The remains were carried to Danville for interment.

Mr. R.J. DANIEL is a "hummer" on issuing marriage license. He has a big heart and assisted in making 45 couples happy in December. It is said he heard so much about marrying during the month that he sent in his resignation to the Batchelors' Club and left forthwith to see his "best girl" who was on a visit to New York during the Christmas holidays.

Hood's calendar for 1891 is out and it is certainly a beautiful production of the lithographers' and printers' arts. The subject represents three children playing musical instruments, and the positions, expressions, coloring and general finish make a most charming picture. But to be appreciated it must be seen. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla Calendar, or send six cents in stamps for one copy, or ten cents for two, to C.I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The railroad track to the Modern Barn Factory in South Oxford has been completed and the Company will remove at once from High Point to Oxford.

Prof. W.H.P. JENKINS turned up in his usual good humor on Monday and transacted important business in connection with the Public Schools of Granville.

Mrs. J.N. LYON has rented and removed to the cottage opposite the Presbyterian Church and would be glad to have a few table boarders at reasonable rates.

Mr. Thomas WINSTON, the excellent Superintendent of the Knitting Mills, has removed his family to Oxford and is occupying the residence of Mrs. J.N. LYON on Raleigh street.

Mr. Richard HART, who will open a large stock of groceries in a few days in the store room lately occupied by Messrs. FURMAN & HAYS, has removed his family from Suffolk, Va., to Oxford.

The charming editress of the Orphans' Friend, Miss Mattie ROUNTREE, accompanied by Miss WYCHE, returned on Tuesday from a most delightful visit to Mrs. Dr. DIXON in Greensboro.

Mr. John BOOTH, one of our most excellent leaf dealers, is spreading out. He has recently established a branch at Clarksville, Va., with Mr. Robt. ROYSTER as manager. Our best wishes attend him in his new deal for the almighty dollar.

The Oxford Female Seminary opened last week with largely increased patronage. This school now has a splendid corp of teachers, and Messrs. PINICK & NEAL are determined to make it one of the leading female schools in the South.

Owing to the unfavorable weather the tobacco breaks have not been very large during the week. We are pleased to learn that prices are looking up, and we sincerely trust they will climb higher and higher until our farmers can realize a living price for their labor.

The young firm of GARRETT & DICKERSON, Hardware dealers on Main street, ask for a share of public patronage. They are enterprising young men and are determined to sell goods as cheap as the cheapest. Give them a trial. Read their advertisement in another column.

We learn that Mr. W.R. HENRY, of Vance county, has been employed by Mr. W.S. PARKER, the brother of the unfortunate man who was poisoned last week in Brassfield township, and is determined to bring the guilty party to justice. We trust it will be done as this is one of the most revolting crimes within the history of the county.

Seeking information on Mitchell Daniel, b. 1806, possibly Granville Co., possibly Va. Married Sarah C. Lemay, (b. 1805, dau of Richard Ussery Lemay and Christian Ussery Lemay. In 1840's Richard Lemay and his family, along with Sarah and Mitchell Daniel, moved to Cannon Co., TN. Am searching for clues to Mitchell's parentage. A family history (The French Connection, by James A. Lemay) states that Sarah Lemay married 'the son of a neighbor'. Sarah Cook Lemay and Mitchell Daniel's son married Nancy Lance, dau of James J. Lance and his 2nd wife, Margaret Youngblood, in Cannon Co., TN. Their daughter, my grandmother, Sarah Jane Daniel m. Luther Elmore Hayes, s/o Elizabeth Turney and James/John/? Hayes/Hays/Hayese of DeKalb Co., TN. Their son, James Harvey Hayes, was my father. The Lemay, Ussery, Daniel and Hayes families have often given their children – both male and female – the maiden names of their mothers. It is possible that Mitchell Daniel's mother was herself a Mitchell. All help is appreciated.

Public Ledger, December 26, 1890

Marriage of Two of Northern Granville's Popular Young People.

For some weeks past, the subject of the notice has been the one event of paramount interest to all others transpiring or to transpire in this neighborhood. A marriage at any time or place or under almost any circumstances is of peculiar interest to most of us. When you add to this fact the prestige, popularity and high social standing, not only of the contracting parties but of their entire families, incident to the one now to be noted there is no wonder that the community stands on tip toes Wednesday afternoon, December 17th, will ever forget the beautiful marriage solemnized there at that time. The church unadorned is a pretty one, but after having been touched in decoration by the skillful hands of a few lady friends of the parties it was scarcely recognizable by its most frequent visitors. From corner to centre, from centre to corner, from centre to side, from side to centre, and around and above the Pulpit hung beautiful evergreen decorations, festooned with grace and symmetry. The terminus of the aisle was spanned by a magnificent arch trimmed with lovely cedar, handsomely and profusely decorated with fern leaves. From the centre of this hung the "Marriage Bell" whose artistic arrangement was brightened by its lily white clapper as it chimed forth the marriage notes of love and happiness. Directly in front of this stood a snow white pyramid adorned with evergreens, rare flowers and lovely vases of every hue that seemed to vie in loveliness with the pure crystalline flakes of the beautiful snow which were "floating and waltzing" to their own sweet music without. Above and on each side of the pulpit were the letters "P & W". Taken all together, and especially for harmonious adaptation to produce a desired effect your correspondent has seen these decorations equaled but seldom surpassed.

It was fitting that this appropriate place should be thus appropriately adorned for the marriage of Mr. John L. PITTARD and Miss Sallie A. WINSTON. The bride is the daughter of B. T. WINSTON, Esq., of this place, who is known not only in this community but throughout the county as a man of sterling worth, high social standing and unbounded hospitality. Miss Sallie has been for the past two years the most popular, beautiful, highly accomplished and cultured lady of this portion of the county. The groom is the son of Mr. G. W. PITTARD, a man as well and favorably known as any one man in this community. No place has among its young men a man of more intricate (?) worth than John L. PITTARD. He is honest, upright, popular, industrious and pious.

The bridal party arrived at the church at 3 o'clock and entered in the following order to the music of the wedding march rendered by Miss Occie WILKERSON:

Mr. Thomas S. RAGSDALE and Miss Lillie BOWLING; Mr. A. P. HARRIS and Miss Lizzie OVERBY; Mr. Robt. DAVIS and Miss Ella PITTARD; Mr. Charlie WARD and Miss Flora CLEMENT; Mr. James W. WINSTON and Miss Sallie PITTARD. Following there came the bride and groom handsomely attired.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. R. H. MARSH, of Oxford, in an impressive manner in the presence of a large number of friends.

Messrs. J.K. CLEMENT and W.H. RAGSDALE acted as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party with a few invited friends returned to the residence of B.T. WINSTON, Esq., the father of the bride. After the usual congratulations and some sly glances between those pulling for the same blessed haven supper was announced.

Up to this time the sense of the beautiful had been gratified, and now we were thinking only of the "inner man," but if possible the loveliest scene of all presented itself. The table was a "thing of beauty" and could we have remained there would have been a "joy forever." Everything that appetite could desire or mind suggest was furnished in abundance and in the best style. Those of us who knew Mrs. WINSTON had no meager expectations, but none were prepared to expect and enjoy what she had prepared. Mrs. WINSTON has one daughter left, and if she intends to duplicate that supper when she embarks on this blissful sea your correspondent desires to give notice of his presence unless fortune fails to present the opportunity.

A glimpse at the parlor after supper impressed one with the fact that the couple just married were not the only ones that believed that marriage is not a failure. We venture the assertion that the future will show that some of that lovely party will soon do likewise. The bride looked unusually well and was the centre of attraction and the groom did not fail to present his most manly appearance. The presents were numerous, valuable, useful and handsome.

Tonight the bridal party is at the home of Mr. G.W. PITTARD, the father of the groom, and we assert without fear of missing the truth that there will be a repetition of last night.

In conclusion we but voice the sentiment of the entire community, and a large circle of friends in this State, Virginia and Texas, when we express the wish that the life of the wedded couple may be but a continuation of the joys and pleasures that cluster around and crowded themselves into their lives and the lives of their friends during this joyous occasion. With this no cloud can darken their path, their future will be sunshine, their home happiness and their lives a success.

An Elegant Dinner

Public Ledger, January 9, 1890

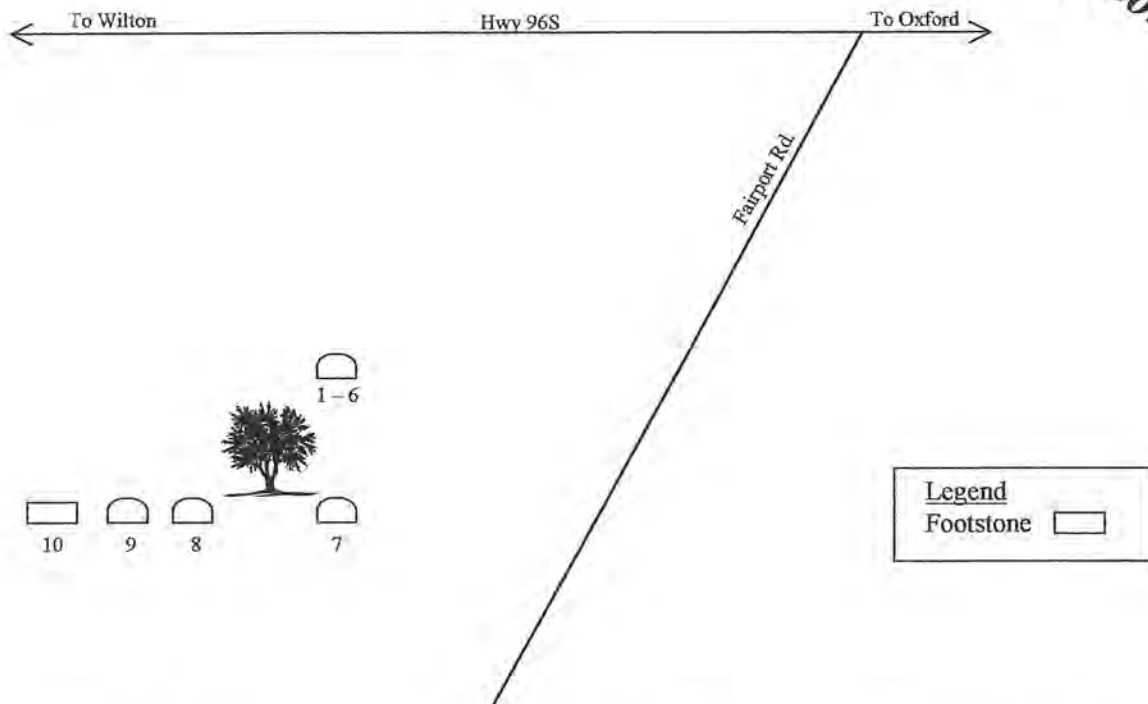

It was our good fortune to dine during the festive Christmas season with Mr. and Mrs. J.F. WHITE. We were accompanied by our better-half, and we never sat down to a more elaborate and well filled table. Covers were laid for 12. Mr. and Mrs. R.F. KNOTT, Mr. and Mrs. C.B. LEACH, Mr. and Mrs. George KNOTT, Mrs. Willie NEAL, Mrs. CHEATHAM, Messrs. Alf HOBGOOD and Henry KNOTT gathered around the heavily laden table and took exceeding great pleasure in relieving it of a portion of its tempting burden. Mrs. Henry HOBGOOD presided at the head of the table and was ably assisted by Mrs. WHITE.

The dinner was a most enjoyable one, and late in the afternoon the guests left for their respective homes with many kind wishes for the host and hostess.

Bullock Dots

Oxford Public Ledger, January 9, 1890

Our best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

Miss Babe PITTARD, after a gay week spent at Adoniram, has returned home.

Mr. Thos. A. WATKINS, now of Glasgow, Va., was at his place in this vicinity a few days since.

Misses Lulla and Jennie WATKINS have returned from a visit to Mrs. Edward BOOTHE of Stems.

Miss Fannie Lou DANIEL, of Oxford, was the guest of Miss Loule WATKINS during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Harry WATKINS who has been quite ill at home all the holidays is able to return to his school in Townesville.

Mr. J.A. ROYSTER, of Bullock's, who is with Mr. Joe LAUGHINHOUSE in Pitt county, spent the holidays with his parents.

Miss Lizzie CARRINGTON, who has been in Mecklenburg county, Va., at school, spent the Christmas holidays at home.

Mrs. L.A. ROYSTER has secured a most excellent teacher in the person of Miss Mary ROBINSON, of Fluvanna county, Va.

Miss Annie PITTARD returned home a few days since from a visit to Chase City, bringing with her Miss Helen GARLAND of that city.

We are glad to welcome back to the neighborhood Mr. Thos. PITTARD Jr. and wife. They are now occupying the residence of Mrs. Lucy ROYSTER.

Mr. Clem CARRINGTON paid a farewell visit a few days since to his family before leaving for Texas. It is not his intention to return to North Carolina for several years, as he wishes to get in permanent business there. We wish him great success in his new home.

Mr. T.G. SPEED, of Galveston, Texas, is the guest of Mrs. Anne DAVIS. He is only on a short visit to friends and relatives in this State, as he will return to Texas sometime this month. We regret to say several of our county boys are planning to return with him and try their fortunes likewise in the Lone Star State.

Mr. Sandy HUGHES, of South Boston, Va., and Messrs. Woodson and Penny MCGUIRE of Danville, Va., visited the neighborhood during the Christmas holidays. There is an old adage which runs thus – ‘a bad(?) penny will ever return.’ Many wishes have been made that it may hold good in this instance.

On Jan. 6th, 1891, at the residence of the bride’s mother, Mrs. Jennie ROYSTER, by the Rev. George WATKINS, Mr. Henry HESTER of Adoniram, and Miss Nannie ROYSTER were married. The marriage was a quiet home affair, few except the waiters being present. Best wishes for their future happiness.

Prof. ALEXANDER exhibited at State Line church last Thursday night some very entertaining panoramic scenes from the Bible. At the close of the evening prizes were offered for the prettiest girl, the ugliest man and the laziest person. The many admirers of Miss Lute ROYSTER will be pleased to hear that she was presented with the first prize at State Line. On the following Saturday night the same exhibit took place at Grassy Creek Baptist church. It was largely attended and was a perfect success. When the prizes were offered Miss Julia LAWSON received a handsome album as the prettiest girl, Mr. James WINSTON, a Jew’s harp as the ugliest man and Mr. Tom WINSTON a cane as the laziest person. - Trump

Dabney Doings

Public Ledger, January 9, 1890

Mr. Ed KELLY left Monday evening for Oak Ridge to attend school.

Mr. Luther BARNES states that rabbits are so plentiful in the Poplar Creek neighborhood that he bagged nineteen in a very short time.

Zeb BURROUGHS, a small boy, was badly burned about the face one day last week. Zeb had powder, firecrackers and matches in his pocket and there was an explosion.

The Rev. W.E. SWAIN, of the M.P. church, who was appointed to the North Granville Circuit, will occupy the parsonage at this place and will preach here next Sunday.

The holidays being over our people have again taken up the burdens of life and begun preparations for another crop. The holidays passed very quietly and all seemed to enjoy themselves, especially the young folks, as there was a great many parties and some suppers given in the neighborhood. When the invitations were passed around of course there were some who felt slighted and we can’t say whether things were done up brown as we were not present.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Is there one of you out there who wouldn't like these things for Christmas?

On the Twelfth day of Christmas,

My true love gave to me,

Twelve census searches,

Eleven Printer ribbons,

Ten e-mail contacts,

Nine headstone rubbings,

Eight birth and death dates,

Seven town clerks sighing,

Six second cousins,

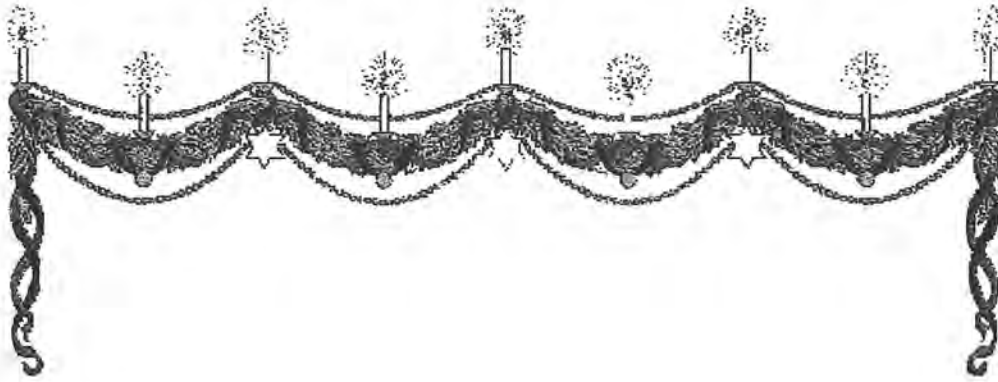

Five coats of arms,

Four GEDCOM files,

Three old wills,

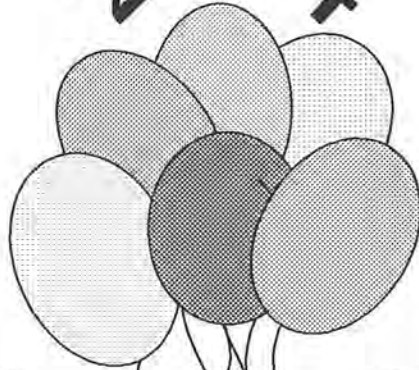

Two CD-ROMS,

And a branch in my Family Tree.

May there always be work for your hands to do;
 May your purse always hold a coin or two;
May the sun always shine on your windowpane;
 May a rainbow be certain to follow each rain;
 May the hand of a friend always be near you;
May God fill your heart with gladness to cheer you.
