Interesting Sketch by Rev. G.C. Shaw

Oxford Public Ledger, April 24, 1928

He Is Pleased to Term is "Seed Germination"

His Parents Were Born In Slavery, But Their Hearts Were Filled With Love For Those Who Were Close And Dear To Them, And That Love Is Reciprocated Until This Day.

Good seed sown in properly prepared soil, will germinate is a principle of agriculture. It is no less true in the intellectual and moral realm.

I was born in 1863 so know nothing about slavery from personal experience. I certainly hold no brief for the institution. It doubtlessly was guilty of all the crimes that have been laid at its door. It was a breeder of ignorance and vice, the effects of which are still seen and felt through out the south and today the ex-slave holder, no less than the ex-slave rejoice that the institution has forever disappeared from our fair land. And now the two groups are united in effort, striving to repair its ravages of ignorance, poverty and vice.

However dark the history of this institution may have been, here and there, its pages are illumined with incidents of kindness and real love, exhibited by the slave holder towards his slave. Doubtlessly there were many as kind and humane slave holders as the ones I am about to mention, but I don't think there were any who excelled them – the FULLERS of Louisburg, N.C. As far back as I have been able to trace, the FULLERS never bought or sold a slave. The slaves in their family were inherited and bequeathed to other members of the family.

My mother was born in this historic family. Not only was she encouraged to learn to read and write, but made to do so. At eight years of age she was compelled daily to get her lessons. She was also taught to sew and having special talents along that line became the seamstress of the family.

My father belonged to the SHAWS who were neighbors of the FULLERS. In fact his Mistress was the daughter of my mother's Mistress. The SHAWS like the FULLERS, treated the few slaves they had not as slaves but as servants. My father was coachman for the SHAWS and my mother seamstress for the FULLERS. These were the two highest positions that could be reached by slaves. The FULLERS were extremely particular about my mother's company. They were married in 1850 and had a bigger wedding that I had in 1890 and finer furniture. My mother continued to live in the yard of the FULLERS and all six of her children save one were born there.

My two oldest sisters had the same experience as my mother. They were taught by Mrs. Ann FULLER, not only encouraged to study their books, but made to do so. The only scolding or boxing of the ears they ever got, was for not knowing their lessons. Mrs. Ann FULLER had a daughter – Miss Anna Richmond FULLER, about the same age as my oldest sister. They grew up together and the tenderest feeling of love has existed between them and their children until this day. Both of them are still living.

As a result of the FULLERS educating my mother and sisters immediately after the war, as soon as the Freedmen's Bureau was established (1868) and provisions made to educate the Negroes, my two oldest sisters were commandeered, and began to teach. There has not been a year since that time that some of us – the SHAWS – have not been teaching. All four of my sisters and my oldest, and only brother were teachers for years. I started this school of which I am still principal in 1890. My oldest sister has three daughters still teaching, and my next oldest sister has one daughter and three sons teaching at present.

All this is the result of the seeds that were sown by the FULLERS many years ago.

As I stand today and view the work of nieces and nephews, and going a little farther back, that of sisters and brother, and farther back still, that of a consecrated Christian and humane slave owner, teaching a little slave girl, and then later the children of this slave girl, to read and write, and to be virtuous, refined and Christ like, I can but exclaim what a wonderful germination and fruition of a seed sown years ago. How can I ever entertain any thing but the kindest feeling for the memory of her and her heirs who sowed the seed.

The FULLERS have been noted since the war for their kindness to the colored people. The story of the old colored man who died in Fayetteville, N.C. a few years ago, leaving the saving of his life time to Mr. Thomas FULLER of N.Y., a descendant and relative of the noted FULLER family, about whom I have spoken. Mr. FULLER had befriended and helped the old colored man for years. As an appreciation of what Mr. FULLER had done for him he left him his estate, consisting of a few thousand dollars. Mr. FULLER being wealthy himself, of course had no use for this money, so established an “Old People’s Fund” for the old colored people of Fayetteville, many of whom are helped annually from the income of this foundation.

I have written this story because I feel that my family owes such an acknowledgement to the FULLERS. Our parents though slaves knew nothing of the cruelty of the institution. We want the FULLERS to know that the descendants of the recipients of their kindness appreciate the fact that they had a Christian, refined and cultured parantage, due of course to the training received at their hands. And in proportion as we cherish and adore the sacred memory of our parents, we feel a debt of inexpressible gratitude to those and their descendants, who trained them.

If we have been able to do any thing for our race and humanity it has been due largely to the fire-side training that we received at home, made possible through educated parents, who were educated by the FULLERS. I know my parents and the FULLERS who have passed to the great beyond, have watched with interest the growth of education in N.C. especially among the colored people, and the part my family has taken in it. The last talk I had with Mrs. Ann FULLER – I had just finished college, and she seemed as proud of me as my mother was, she said “George I am so glad you have finished college, you know, she went on to say “you and your brother William would have been educated even if the war had not have ended as it did.” I want you; she said, “to put your education to good use as your sisters have done.” I have heard much talk about erecting a monument to the faithful slaves. If I were a rich man I would erect such a monument some where on my campus. And then I would erect one right by the side of it, “To the memory of kind and Christian slave-holders” and I would call that building the “FULLER building.”

Some may say it is sentimental. Granting that it is I have no apology to offer for my feelings. We erect monuments to heroes, even when the hero has made his way to fame through human blood. Why not erect monuments to faithfulness, kindness and the practice of the highest type of Christianity.

“Uncle Sidney” Dies in Crude Wigwam Home

April 14, 1936

Granville county’s most unique resident – ‘Uncle Sidney’ BURNETT – is dead, a victim of pneumonia.

Uncle Sidney had lived for many years – some say 15, others 20 – in a crudely constructed wigwam just off the Durham highway, about three miles from Oxford, on Hatchett’s Run.

The story is often repeated here that Sidney BURNETT was the son of a well-to-do Negro family. His parents died when he was quite young. Their farm was under mortgage and Uncle Sidney, as he was affably known, always labored under the impression that he was unfairly treated when he did not come into possession of the property.

He left the place, made his residence in a clearing on Hatchett’s Run, within the sound of the racing automobiles and trucks and an occasional passing airplane, but he was rarely seen further than hollowing distance from his camp, which consisted of three wigwams made of pine poles, covered with broom straw and banked over with black dirt. One was used for sleeping, another for his cooking and yet another for storage of chairs and other goods he possessed.

Visitors to the camp recently – and there were always a constant stream of callers on Sundays and holidays – had found Uncle Sidney in poor spirits. He had little to say and sat most of the time in the sunlight which shined in the small opening to his hut.

He spoke with an accent which gave evidence of refinement and a keen appreciation of culture as he had learned it in his younger days. He always insisted that visitors have seats. A cat which lived with him was his constant companion. Chickens roamed the yard, ranging in the surrounding fields.

No relative closer than a fourth cousin is known to be living. The body was removed Wednesday afternoon to the home of West NORWOOD, colored, who had known Burnett for many years.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon.

Source unknown.

Our "Hall of Fame"

Our "Hall of Fame", people who have made and are making your city. For convenience, these names are listed alphabetically. There are, of course, many, many others who belong in this "Hall of Fame", but I am doing the best I can in the limited time and space I have.

James Harvey BRIDGERS is a member of a prominent family of Northampton county in this State. Besides being an attorney, he organized and directed the water, telephone, light and power companies of Henderson, and has filled other important positions. He is a charter member and past president of the Kiwanis. Much credit for the Henderson Centennial is due him, as it is being held at his suggestion, and he is on the board of directors of it.

David Young COOPER was raised a few miles northwest of Oxford, and the old home of his father, Captain Alexander (Sandy) COOPER is now standing and the ridge between this and Oxford to Stovall road is known as Cooper's Mountain. D.Y. COOPER learned the tobacco business under his kin people in Oxford. In 1872 debated whether to open a sales warehouse in Kittrell or Henderson. He decided in favor of the latter because it was more central to the bight tobacco market. Later he became interested in the cotton mill business, being president from the beginning of both the Henderson and Harriet Cotton Mills. The last is named for his mother, who was Miss Harriet YOUNG.

Elihu G. DAVIS came from near Petersburg, Va., to our city, and with George A. ROSE as partner, started the Davis & Rose store, which is now our E.G. DAVIS and Sons Company Store. Mr. DAVIS was one of the principal founders of our cotton mills, being for several years the first secretary of the Henderson Cotton Mills. One of his sons, R.G.S. DAVIS continued the store, but our "Bob" as we called him died a few months ago, so his son, R.G.S. DAVIS Jr., is now managing the store.

Isaac Wayne HUGHES was born in Hendersonville, North Carolina. He is the son of the Rev. Nicholas Collins HUGHES, D.D., and his wife, Adeline Edmonds Williams HUGHES. Dr. HUGHES was the son of John HUGHES and his wife, Hannah HUGHES of Walnut Grove, Pennsylvania.

The HUGHES family, of Welsh origin settled in America in the seventeenth century, one branch locating in Pennsylvania. John HUGHES was the owner of Walnut Grove Farm, a staunch patriot, an intimate friend of Isaac WAYNE, who was a near relative of "Mad Anthony" WAYNE of Revolutionary fame. By reason of this intimacy, John HUGHES named his oldest son after Isaac WAYNE, who was a well-known physician of New Bern, NC.

Mrs. N. Collin HUGHES was the daughter of Dr. Robert WILLIAMS and his wife, Elizabeth Ellis WILLIAMS of Pitt county, North Carolina. At a very early age Dr. WILLIAMS became a surgeon in the Revolutionary War, serving under General GREENE. Dr. WILLIAMS is said to have been a prime factor in the naming of Greenville, the county seat of Pitt county, which was named for General GREENE. Besides being a physician, Dr. WILLIAMS was a large landowner, and for many years was a legislator in the General Assembly of North Carolina.

Before marriage Mrs. Isaac Wayne HUGHES was Penelope HAIGH, a daughter of Major Charles HAIGH and his wife, Alice Marsden Swann HAIGH, of Fayetteville, NC. Major

HAIGH was a soldier of the Confederacy, his parents came direct from England. Alice Marsden SWANN was a direct descendant of James MOORE, first governor of Carolina, and also of Samuel SWANN, a notable Colonial, and author of that rare book "Revival of the Laws", first published in 1751, and called, by reason of its binding, "The Yellow Jacket".

The three children of Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Wayne HUGHES are: Miss Aliene E. HUGHES, of New York, Miss Alice Swann HUGHES of Henderson, and Isaac Wayne HUGHES Jr., of New York.

Henry A. DANNIS has meant much to Henderson, as through the Henderson Daily Dispatch, of which he is editor, he has done much to make our city a better place to live in. In doing this, he has a splendid corps of assistants. Mr. DENNIS is on the board of directors for the Henderson Centennial

Mr. & Mrs. E.G. EVERITT were from Alabama. Mr. EVERITT was in business in Asheville, but his health failed. So in 1929, they moved to our city, Mrs. EVERITT starting the Henderson Business College, Mr. EVERITT assisting as best he could. Mr. EVERITT died a few years ago, so Mrs. EVERITT is continuing this college alone. She has a married sister in West Virginia, with whom she spends her vacations.

Thaddeus Rives MANNING was born in Bertie county, NC, later his parents moved to Ringwood, Halifax County, NC.

September 1, 1881, he moved to Henderson, starting the Gold Leaf newspaper, which he published for thirty years. This is now being printed by the Henderson Daily Dispatch.

Owing to his efforts in the interest of education he was called "The father of the public schools in Vance county."

Judge R. Hunt PARKER is a descendant of John TAYLOR and Catherine PENDLETON of Macpelah. By his decisions, Judge PARKER is making Vance county and this section of the State "a better place to live in." He lived in our city a few years ago for a short time.

Henry POWELL came to our county in 1845 from Wales, settling on the Lynbank road. A brother, who came with him, went to California, and disappeared in the "gold rush" of 1849.

Erastus A. POWELL, son of Henry above, moved to Henderson, and was sheriff of Vance county for several years. His son, Henry T. POWELL was an attorney and our mayor. Following him, Henry T. POWELL Jr., is today an attorney and our mayor, also he is chairman of the Henderson Centennial Committee.

Mrs. Katherine Vize RALSTON is of French ancestry and is a product of western Kentucky. Her family having long been connected with the mining business, well fitted her for the position she has as owner and manager of the City Fuel Company.

She has been prominent in the business and social life of our city, and is a director of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce.

J.A. WARREN is our oldest citizen, being now ninety-three years old. He came to our city many years ago, and with his hammer and saw helped to build Henderson.

Major James B. WHITE, of English ancestry, was born in Accomac county, Va., in 1828, of a very distinguished family of that section. He was educated at Margaret Academy, and was United States collector of customs under President PIERCE. He married in 1853, Miss Sarah Ann BAYLY, they having eight children. After much noted service in the Civil War, he was sent to this section to collect supplies for Lee's Army, which resulted in his buying the Colonel Wm. EATON home, our first court house location, which he named "Locust Hill." A very beautiful place at that time.

Later they moved to Henderson, and he was one of the first members of our City Board of Education, a prominent Mason, and the local Eastern Star Chapter of this city bears his name.

The late Mrs. Fanny White GARLICK was his youngest daughter, who married Wm. L. GARLICK, a son of the Rev. John C. GARLICK, a noted Methodist minister.

There are three members of this family, John C. GARLICK of Baltimore, Md., and Misses Sally and Edna GARLICK of our city.

William WYCHE was from the Tar river section, below Cannady's mill. He married a daughter of Lewis REAVIS, and they lived here on the hill where our Mrs. Henry PERRY now lives. William WYCHE inherited much land from his father-in-law, and William street was named for him. He is ancestor of Brooks WYCHE, an attorney in our city today.

Whetstone Whiffs

Oxford Public Ledger, September 11, 1891

The Sunday School at Mountain Creek is in a flourishing condition.

Miss Leila EAKES is on a visit to her sister Mrs. VEAZEY, near Wilkins.

Our farmers are very busy curing tobacco, which is inferior in quality.

The echo of the saw and hammer is heard around here as Mr. B.F. FRAZIER is having another house put up.

Fodder pulling is now going on and we trust our farmers will save enough to supply them and not have to send their money West for hay.

We more than regret to learn of the sudden death of Mr. Bob WILSON near Stovall last Wednesday. He died in his wagon in the road with heart disease. He leaves a wife and 5 or 6 children.

The result of the late outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Mountain Creek Baptist Church some 30 people professed religion. Owing to inclement weather on the 5th Sunday in August the baptizing did not take place. It will come off on the third Saturday afternoon after services. - Bill Dad

January 21, 1890

Mr. J.C. HUNDLEY, who has a class of boys in the Methodist Sunday School, offered several prizes the first of last year for prompt attendance. On Sunday last the prizes were awarded and Master Leak PEACE captured the first, as he did not miss a single Sunday during the year. Master Marvin MINOR won the second, having been absent only one Sunday during the year. Master Frank SPENCER, for absenting himself only two Sundays, was awarded third prize. For punctual attendance over 45 Sundays Masters Henry HUNDLEY, Willie MINOR, Robert HERBERT, Willie HERBERT, Wright SPENCER, Willis PEACE, Jeff ALLISON and Johnny GRIFFIN were all awarded prizes.

The following prizes were awarded by the Superintendent, Mr. John W. HAYS, for punctual attendance during the year: Roy FURGUSON and Leak PEACE, attendance 52 Sundays, $2 each, Daisy MINOR and Marvin MINOR, Attendance 51 Sundays, $1 each; May HUNDLEY, who has answered to her name every Sunday for two years, was awarded a gold medal, as was also Nannie KING, Mamie TYLER, Eva MINOR and Luna USRY, who were present every Sunday during 1889.

We are glad to learn that the school is in a flourishing condition, and that the prospect for 1890 is of a most flattering character. Every member of the church should consider it his or her bounden duty to assist in carrying on this great work of the church, by inculcating into the minds of the children the virtues and principles of the Christian religion and raising them up in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord."

One day a man came home from work to find his new bride standing in the kitchen bawling her eyes out. "What's the matter, Hon?" "The dog ate the apple pie I baked for you," she said. "Don't cry, Honey. Don't cry!" he consoled, "I'll buy you a new dog."

Ancient Rules for Ancestors!

Found! Ancient Rules for Ancestors! And they were SO good at following them!

- (1) Thou shalt name your male children: James, John, Joseph, Josiah, Abel, Richard, Thomas, William.
- (2) Thou shalt name your female children: Elizabeth, Mary, Martha, Maria, Sarah, Ida, Virginia, May.
- (3) Thou shalt leave NO trace of your female children.
- (4) Thou shalt, after naming your children from the above lists, call them by strange nicknames such as: Ike, Eli, Polly, Dolly, Sukey.---making them difficult to trace.
- (5) Thou shalt NOT use any middle names on any legal documents or census reports, and only where necessary, you may use only initials on legal documents.
- (6) Thou shalt learn to sign all documents illegibly so that your surname can be spelled, or misspelled, in various ways: Hicks, Hix, Hix, Hixe, Hucks, Kicks or Robinson, Robertson, Robison, Roberson, Robuson, Robson, Dobson.
- (7) Thou shalt, after no more then 3 generations, make sure that all family records are lost, misplaced, burned in a court house fire, or buried so that NO future trace of them can be found.
- (8) Thou shalt propagate misleading legends, rumors, and vague innuendo regarding your place origination: (A) you may have come from England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales....or Iran; (B) you may have American Indian ancestry of the ____ tribe or (C) you may have descended from one of three brothers that came over from _____.
- (9) Thou shalt leave NO cemetery records, or headstones with legible names.
- (10) Thou shalt leave NO family Bible with records of birth, marriages, or deaths.
- (11) Thou shalt ALWAYS flip thy name around. If born James Albert, thou must make all the rest of thy records in the names of Albert, AJ, JA, AL, Bert, Bart, or Alfred.
- (12) Thou must also flip thy parent's names when making reference to them, although "Unknown" or a blank line is an acceptable alternative.
- (13) Thou shalt name at least 5 generations of males and dozens of their cousins with identical names in order to totally confuse researchers.

US Bureau of the Census, Tenth Census of the United States: 1880; the total population of Franklinton 1880 was 484.

The 1880 Franklinton census provided more than an indication of occupations. For example, the household of Samuel C. VANN, enumerated by W.E. FOSTER on June 7, 1880, contained seven individuals. Samuel C. VANN, age 27, was born in SC; his father was born in SC and his mother in NC. He was married to Bettie B. VANN, age 21 (born in NC); she kept house. They had a son, Aldrige H. VANN, who was only 20 days old. S.C. VANN'S brother, Macon E. VANN (age 16, born in NC) lived with them. Also in the household were VANN'S mother-in-law, Jese H. HENLEY (age 56, a widow), his brother-in-law, James A. HENLEY (age 18, and in college), and a boarder, Alpid B. WESTER (age 24, a store clerk).

Oxford Public Ledger, September 11, 1891

Mrs. W.C. GANNON is visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Bennie O. HESTER has returned from a trip in the Eastern part of the State.

Mrs. Dulcie KIVETT, of Waco, Texas, and Miss Zana FLEMING, of Henderson, are visiting the family of their uncle W.S. HESTER.

Curing tobacco is all the go with us now. The cures are common and the tobacco is uncommon. Tobacco worms are bad a sight – some plants look like they have been in a hail storm.

Messrs. R. O. SMITH and Robt. LUMPKIN have returned from Pitt County where they have been in the tobacco business. It is though that Robt. will not abide with us long as the attractions are greater for him in Pitt than in Granville.

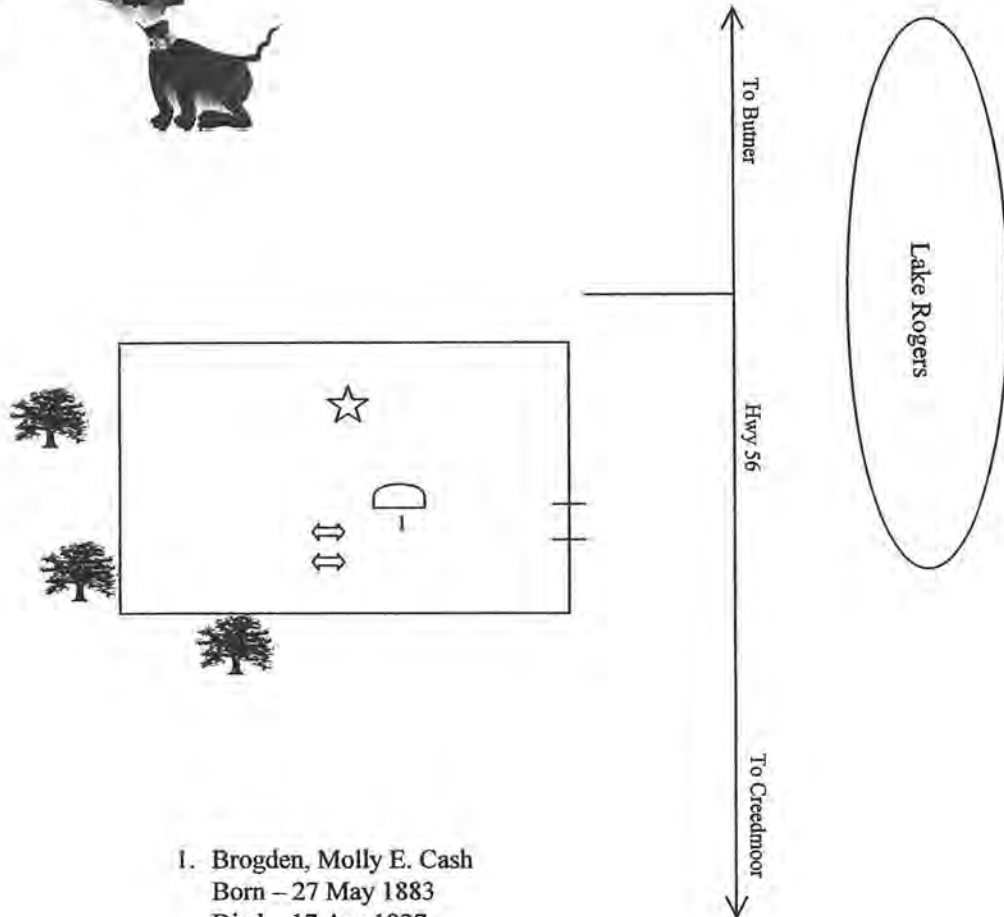

In our next item we will tell you about the Farmers' Alliance in this section, about the forty acres of land and the mule and we will also tell you what our women and children are doing for the cause of missions, and the workings of a society known as the Bright Jewels. - H.

History of Mt. Zion Church Reveals Interesting Points

October 8, 1940

(Editor's Note: This history was read by Miss Viola JONES on Saturday at the Centennial Celebration of the church).

On the 28th of October 1840, a group of 18 members met with two ministers to organize a church at a new meeting house which they called Mount Zion. The ministers were Robert MCNABB and A.L. WYNN. Among the members were John P. BLALOCK, W.P.B. SLAUGHTER, John O'BRIANT and Abraham SLAUGHTER. John BLALOCK was nominated for Deacon and ordained by the ministers present. At the next meeting W.P.B. SLAUGHTER was named as the first clerk of Mount Zion.

This church was located on its present site at Berea, on the national highway running from Oxford to Roxboro. It has had three buildings, the first only a small frame structure and the second was a small wooden building built in 1856 and was kept until the third and present church was erected. This is a brick building built in 1892 during the pastorate of Rev. C.A. JENKINS. It has a seating capacity of 500 and the church property today is valued at $8,000.00. The present membership is 229.

In 1930 the church was remodeled and memorial windows were put in by individuals to the memory of their loved ones.

Church services were originally held on the fourth Sunday of each month then changed to the second Sunday and in 1846 services were held on the first Sunday. Since that time this has continued except for short intervals when it was necessary to meet the conveniences of the pastor or members to have the services changed to other dates.

The first trustees of Mount Zion were seven in number – McVay CHANDLER, John O'BRIANT, John SHERMAN, Joseph GOOCH, John J. ROGERS, Abraham SLAUGHTER and Wm. T. TIPPETT. Of the old members of whom we class as laying the foundations of Mt. Zion church, although they joined years after the beginning, deserve some mention. They were: B.D. HOWARD, Spencer O'BRIANT, S.L. HOWARD, E.H. JONES(?), Pickney MEADOWS, John MEADOWS, M. BLALOCK, Amos GOOCH, Joseph GOOCH and I.N. DAY. They were old pillars of the church and the old minutes are full of their good deeds.

These men with the other members of the church were instrumental in establishing the first Sabbath School. This was started on June 3, 1865 with James B. HOBGOOD, superintendent and Samuel HOWARD, assistant. In 1882 a branch Sunday School was begun at Five Forks under the leadership of Bro. MALONE. This Sunday school was the laying of the foundation of Bethany church. Mt. Zion took a large part in building this church and was their main support for a few years afterwards.

In August 1883 Brother Abraham SLAUGHTER died having made his will in May of the same year, leaving Mt. Zion church $5,916.39 as an endowment to be kept lent out secured by first mortgages on real estate and interest collected annually and paid to pastor's salary, state and foreign missions. This fund has been kept lent by the trustees of Mt. Zion church with Gen. B.S.

ROYSTER as counselor. There have been only two secretaries and treasurers of this fund: Brother I.N. DAY serving from July 26, 1884 to April 1, 1905. N.J. JONES served from 1905 to the present time. Not one penny of this fund ever been lost and around $16,000 has been paid to missions.

In 1888 Mt. Zion took the leading steps toward building a school house and in 1889 she assumed the remaining debt on this schoolhouse.

This church has sent out as preachers and evangelists a few who must be mentioned. Among the first of these is Rev. Thomas J. HORNER who was baptized and ordained in the church and also returned to serve as pastor for 26 years of loving service. Fred N. DAY, evangelist, J.G. BLALOCK, Robert MCFARLAND, Leland O'BRIAN and E.D. GOOCH and Wayne CURTIS are the other ministers.

The church is still prospering and can now boast of a wide awake Sunday School with 162 members and a good attendance ever Sunday. Our missionary society was organized in _____ and has always been a great inspiration to our church activities. We have meetings in the homes of the members. The membership of Mt. Zion church are happy to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the church. Our present pastor is Rev. W.C. FRANCIS.

The following is a list of the pastors and clerks of Mt. Zion church in the order in which they served with the pastor named first: 1841 – Robert MCNABB, W.P.B. SLAUGHTER; 1843 – 1846 – J.L. PURIFY, John J. ROGERS; 1846 – 1858 – James KING, Thos. HORNER; 1859 – 1861 – T.J. HORNER, John SHERMAN; 1862 – 1887 – C.A. JENKINS, I.N. DAY; 1887 – J.A. BEAM, B.D. GOOCH; J.A. STRADLEY, I.N. DAY; R.H. MARSH, M. BLALOCK; J.B. WEATHERSPOON, J.H. MEADOWS; J.G. BLALOCK, E.A. HOWARD; W.M. HUDSON, W.H. BLALOCK; G.L. LUMPKINS, N.J. JONES; C.A. UPCHURCH, R.H. O'BRIANT; E.R. HARRIS, A.H. BLALOCK; A. LAMONDS, Roy DANIEL; C.L. GILLESPIE, E.D. GOOCH; W.B. JONES, Louis THORP, both clerks; W.C. FRANCIS, N.J. JONES.

The present Board of Deacons and Trustees are: (Brethern) R.H. O'BRIANT, W.H. DEAN, J.R. DANIEL, E.D. GOOCH, J.R. O'BRIANT, N.C. JONES, Thomas HOBGOOD, W.B. JONES.

Mad Dogs on the Rampage

The Public Ledger

November 14, 1890

The canines are becoming a disturbing element in some portions of the county. In the Tar River section on Tuesday the 4th a mad dog bit the son of Mr. Wash FULLER. The next day near Grissom's one bit Mr. Charles GRISSOM on one of his hands. Both of the victims made for the home of Mr. L.H. MOSS, near Wilton, who possesses a stone which was applied to the wounds with great success. The stone adhered to one 40 minutes and to the other 60 minutes and it is believed extracted all the poison from the wounds.

Lead cups were used to drink ale or whiskey. The combination would sometimes knock them out for a couple of days. Someone walking along the road would take them for dead and prepare them for burial. They were laid out on the kitchen table for a couple of days and the family would gather around and eat and drink and wait and see if they would wake up. Hence the custom of holding a "wake."
