The Long Ago

Public Ledger, June 1, 1899

“Backward, turn backward, O! time in your flight,
Make me a child again just for tonight.”

Some weeks ago I read a letter in the Public Ledger from Mr. John MALLORY which carried my mind back more than sixty years to the time when I was a wee school girl, in short dresses and pantalets. Old incidents and faces keep crowding on my memory until I'm pretty much in the fix of the pious old lady who was so bothered with a worldly tune, she could not get out of her mind, no matter where she went, or what she was doing that tune kept ringing in her ears, until at last in desperation she got out in the floor and sung and danced it with all her might. After she got through she said now devil take it and go! (No allusion to the printer's devil.) I remember old Mr. John MALLORY, or rather I remember going to school with two of his daughters and oldest son, WILLIAM. The daughters have been dead many years, and the last I knew of the son, he was driving the stage from Oxford to Raleigh.

The school we attended was taught by Miss Ann GLENN in one room of her father's house nearly opposite Major SPENCER'S, the house was afterwards owned and added to by Jas. M. HIGGINS. This was in the fall of 1835. The next spring I entered the Seminary where I spent three happy years, two under the tuition of Rev. Jesse RANKIN and his estimable wife, with Mrs. O'BRIEN as music teacher, and one with Mr. Joe RIDLEY, afterward an Episcopal minister. The two Academies male and Female, in those days were very near each other, which circumstance caused our teachers no end of trouble in trying to prevent any communication between the two schools. I think boys must be better now than sixty years ago, or teachers have learned better how to control them, (though some one suggests that Athletics afford a safe outlet for the surplus energy and spirits of the present generation.) Be that as it may, there is a difference. The Academy boys used to be a perfect terror to the staid citizens of Oxford. Scarcely a night passed that they did not commit some outrage against decency and order. They would take off gates and carry them to out of way places, build fences across the streets, take off carriage wheels and hide them, and turn every thing they could lay their hands on topsy turvy. One night they carried a calf up into the Female Academy and tied it to the bell rope! This, I suppose, was to spite Mr. RANKIN who had just forbidden the girls to walk with the boys to and from church.

I wonder how many of those boys and girls are now living? I know of only two who were then boys living in Oxford now, and not more than half a dozen of the girls in the county. All of the old people have passed away. The RIDLEYS, GILLIAMS, WILEYS, LITTLEJOHNS, KINGSBURYS, HERNDONS, R.N. and D.C., Messrs. MCCLANAHAN, KYLE, LATHAM, A. LANDIS, SR., and others and old Dr. HARRY, does any one remember him? Quite a character with the children, for he kept a cake and candy shop on Gilliam street, into which all their pennies went. The old doctor was a devout Presbyterian, and being lame was allowed a seat in church on the lower floor instead of going up into the gallery with the other colored members. He delighted in singing with a very strong voice and little idea of time; it was amusing to hear him come out half a line behind every one else at the end of each stanza. What changes have taken place! Oxford was then a beautiful village, but it has spread out in every direction until it has doubled in size. Mr. Tom LEWIS used to live just where the Asylum now stands, then away out of town now College street is built up to and beyond the Asylum. All the old landmarks are passing away, the Episcopal church next. All earthly things are subject to change and decay. Even human love may change but there is One in whom there is neither variableness nor shadow of turning.

P.S. This was written two months ago. I see in the Antique Central Presbyterian mention made of John CHAVIS the first colored Presbyterian Minister in North Carolina. He visited Mr. RANKIN while I was there at school. He belonged to Orange Presbytery though a native of Virginia. Lucy A. Russell

The History of Bullock Baptist Church

By Mrs. R.A. Davis

Bullock Baptist Church is located in the village of Bullock, N.C., and is the first and only Baptist Church for white people in the village at the present.

This church was an outgrowth of a progressive Sunday School and prayer meeting, superintended by J.G. PITTARD, located in the Bullock community of a considerable number of Baptist members, and equally as large a number of Baptist prospects. Sunday school and prayer meeting were held in the public school building.

A definite need was realized among the people for a Baptist church. On July 16, 1904, a meeting was called for the purpose of organizing a church. The assembly first sang "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord," then Brother J.G. PITTARD read the 46th Psalm, and by a brief prayer, invoked God's blessings on the meeting. They sang next "Nearer My God to Thee." The object of the meeting was stated by one of the members. A motion for organization was passed. The following officers were elected: B.T. HICKS, moderator, and J.G. PITTARD, secretary. The church covenant was read and rules governing the church were adopted. Names were asked for all those who by letter wished to join the church; twenty one names were received. Some of the charter members were as follows: B.T. HICKS and wife, J.G. PITTARD and wife, W.B. ROYSTER and several of his children, R.M. PITTARD and wife, John E. THOMAS, R.A. DAVIS and wife. On the next summer or year, the additional officers were elected: B.T. HICKS, W.B. ROYSTER, and R.A. DAVIS, deacons (these also were elected as trustees), J.G. PITTARD, clerk, Rev. R.H. MARSH, pastor.

On January 8, 1905, a unanimous call was extended to Rev. Dr. R.H. MARSH, Oxford, at a salary of $125 a year, and he accepted and became the first pastor. After securing Dr. MARSH, and under his leadership, the congregation immediately began to lay plans for the construction of a house of worship. The people rallied to the task of building a church. Some gave their labor, other their timber, others their money, and some gave a combination of all these, all working together as a united body, until November 3, 1906, when the church, a rectangular edifice with a seating capacity of about 300, was completed, painted, furnished, and out of debt.

During the same month on Thanksgiving Day, November 29, 1906, the church was dedicated to God. Rev. THOMPSON of Durham, preached the dedication sermon; Rev. J.A. STRADLEY led the prayer.

For twelve years Dr. MARSH pastored Bullock Church. He was noted for his deep exposition of Scriptures, humility of spirit, and pious Christ-like life. During the dozen years of his ministry at Bullock the work of the Lord grew, naturally under the leadership of such a man, both in spiritual depth and its numbers. After passing his three score years and ten, Dr. MARSH resigned his work at Bullock along with his other churches, to retire from active service. He was elected as pastor emeritus until his death. On his resignation, Dr. MARSH recommended Rev. G.T. TUNSTALL, a young graduate of the Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Ky., whom he called his son in the ministry.

On June 3, 1917, immediately after the resignation of Dr. MARSH, and on his recommendation, the church unanimously called Rev. G.T. TUNSTALL. Rev. TUNSTALL was a man deeply consecrated to Christ with a broad vision for the Kingdom, eloquent preacher with magnetic personality that attracted and impressed all those with whom he came in contact. He went among his flock often, entering their homes, learning their names, from the youngest to the oldest, spreading a ray of optimism and Christian sympathy that won for him the highest esteem and undying loyalty among all of his members.

Upon Brother TUNSTALL'S arrival on the field the church had no financial system; so his first task was, through a series of sermons and lectures, to get the church to adopt some definite financial plan. Shortly afterward, the church adopted the budget system with which the church has labored satisfactorily until the present.

Rev. TUNSTALL saw and felt the need for an enlarged auditorium and a number of Sunday school rooms. He fervently advocated the building plan. The people joined him unitedly, and soon an enlarged church auditorium and four Sunday school rooms were realized in completion,.

On June 6, 1918, Mr. TUNSTALL asked for a leave of absence to go to France to work with the YMCA during the World War. He resumed his pastorate in August 20, 1919, remaining with us until February 6, 1921 when feeling that his main contributions to the Bullock field were completed, and feeling that God was calling him to a pastorate where he could render a larger service, he resigned.

During Mr. TUNSTALL'S stay in France, Rev. E.G. USRY of Oxford, supplied the church and through his practical type of preaching, his earnest faith in God, and his saintly life, he won the deepest affection from the people.

When Brother TUNSTALL left, the church called Rev. Huey O. MILLER who remained only one year.

The church then called Rev. C.A. UPCHURCH, Oxford, who preached nearly two years, resigning to take the Baptist church at Nashville, NC. Mr. UPCHURCH won a place in the hearts of his members, both old and young, and the church was reluctant to accept his resignation.

In December 1923, the congregation unanimously called Rev. Paul HARTSELL, then of the Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Ky. He accepted the work and began his ministry at Bullock in February 1924, and remained on the field until January 1930, when he resigned to take work at Brevard, NC.

During the pastorate of Rev. Paul HARTSELL, the work of the Lord prospered. He was an excellent preacher and pastor. He was unanimously liked among his parishioners. While he was pastor the community suffered a considerable loss in the burning of the church building caused by a defective flue; however, the church collected twenty-five hundred dollars insurance. Under the leadership of Brother HARTSELL, plans were immediately laid for the erection of a new and better building. Subscriptions were made, labor was volunteered until a ten thousand dollar, handsome brick structure was completed. Brother HARTSELL, himself, did a great deal of manual labor and acted as the general architect.

During the absence of a building at Bullock, Stovall Baptist Church cordially welcomed the Bullock congregation to use their building.

The new building was completed, and on the first Sunday in May 1929, the first service was held with former pastors, Rev. C.A. UPCHURCH, and Rev. G.T. TUNSTALL speaking.

On the resignation of Mr. HARTSELL, the church unanimously called Rev. G. Van STEPHENS who served us 10 years and 8 months and was a good preacher and excellent pastor and was greatly loved and admired by the people. He resigned in December 1940 to accept work at Warsaw, NC and the church has been without a pastor since.

This history would be incomplete without making special mention of some of the faithful. First, I mention Brethren B.T. HICKS and the late J.G. PITTARD who were the original founders of Bullock church. They labored together as brothers in Christ for years, promoting the church, Sunday school and prayer meeting, and all that was right, but standing in bold opposition to all that was wrong. Both reared large families, and these were brought up under Christian environment and most of them have gone out to bless the world because of Christian influence and heritage.

Then I mention Brother T.A. ROYSTER, deceased, who served in an admirable way as church clerk under every pastor the church had except the last. He was naturally endowed with sound wisdom, and after his conversion, he combined with it a deeply consecrated life. He was both aggressive and progressive in the world and in the church. He had a wide vision for the extension of God's Kingdom, and he sought to promote His cause by his time, influence and money.

The following have gone from the church to do special religious work: James P. DAVIS, preacher; Mrs. A.S. GILLESPIE, formerly Miss Pauline PITTARD, who went to Kaling, China, with her husband, Dr. A.S. GILLESPIE, and spent nearly seven years in missionary work. She and her three boys returned home in December, 1940 on account of the terrible war conditions there. Her husband is still in China, carrying on the Lord's work where he feels he is greatly needed.

England is old and small and the local folks started running out of places to bury people. So they would dig up coffins and would take the bones to a "bone-house" and reuse the grave.

When reopening these coffins, 1 out of 25 coffins were found to have scratch marks on the inside and they realized they had been burying people alive. So they thought they would tie a string on the wrist of the corpse, lead it through the coffin and up through the ground and tie it to a bell. Someone would have to sit out in the graveyard all night (the "graveyard shift") to listen for the bell; thus, someone could be "saved by the bell" or was considered a "dead ringer."

Granville County Physicians

Granville County is very old, and from its beginning has been blessed with dedicated Physicians. Time will not allow me to even name them all, but I will give the names of many, and tell something about a few of them. Many of the older ones have descendents living in Oxford today.

Dr. Washington DORSEY came from Maryland, 1808 – 1864, Frank BULLOCK'S great grandfather.

Dr. Alexander FLEMING, 1824 – 1867, Sonny FLEMING'S great grandfather.

Dr. John Graham HUNT, 1861, uncle of Mary Fisher CLEMENT, “Miss Rena HUNT'S husband”, the present Graham HUNT named for him.

Dr. John W. BOOTH came to Granville in 1846, and was a surgeon in the Civil War.

Dr. William O. BASKERVILLE offered his services to Oxford in 1879. He came from Mecklenburg County, Va. Here, he lived next to the old Methodist Church, which was on the corner of Main & Sycamore Sts. Headquarters at Hall's Drug Store.

Dr. W.R. HERNDON died in 1865. His nephew was Mr. W.H. HUNT, to whom he gave the Herndon homeplace.

Dr. Oscar GREGORY came from Halifax County, NC. He obtained distinction in medicine at the University of Virginia in 1853. He served as a surgeon in the army of Northern Virginia during the Civil War. He practiced in several communities, before offering the services of “his profession in all its branches to the people of Oxford.” “Having always enjoyed a liberal patronage from every community in which he has lived, he is encouraged to hope for the same in Oxford.” “Charges will be the same as those of the Physicians of Oxford. He also claims to possess that charity for which his profession has always been so justly distinguished.” Can be found in his office over Lassiter & King's Drug Store, or at his residence on College St. at the sign of the red post. In 1885 he was a member of the North Carolina State Medical Society.

Some of the Oxford doctors in the early nineties were: Dr. S.D. BOOTH; Dr. Pat BOOTH; Dr. J.M. EMMITT; Dr. S.H. CANNADY, 1866 – 1939. As so many doctors, his offices were over Hall's Drug Store; Dr. John Buxton WILLIAMS.

Dr. George A. COGGESHALL was born in Rhode Island and located in Oxford in 1892. He died in 1914. His office was in the White Building. Father of Mrs. B.K. LASSITER. Grandfather of Mrs. Bob BRYAN (Cissie).

Dr. William Battle BULLOCK, father of Frank BULLOCK.

Dr. Leonidas C. TAYLOR was born in 1824 near Oxford, and was the son of Robert & Mildred TAYLOR. He married in June 1849, Miss Francis WORTHINGTON, and has 4 sons and a daughter. His ability as a Physician was shown not only by his extensive practice, but especially by his success in various cases of extreme illness, especially typhoid fever. He attended church regularly at the Presbyterian Church. He was a rare combination of churchman and sportsman. He attended every ballgame that came to Oxford, was fond of chess, and was an industrious fisherman. He served two terms as Postmaster of Oxford and one term as Register of Deeds for Granville County. He was highly esteemed by the whole community and was one of the few men that everybody liked, both white and colored. After practicing medicine in Oxford for many years, he died in 1911 at the old Taylor Homeplace, the home of his son R.P. TAYLOR. He left many descendants in Oxford.

Some of the many other fine Physicians who came to Granville later were: Dr. Samuel WATKINS; Dr. William L. TAYLOR; Dr. N.C. DANIEL; Dr. Nelson THOMAS; Dr. Benjamin K. HAYES; Dr. J.A. MORRIS (Health Officer for Granville County); Dr. J.S. BRADSHER (Stovall); Dr. E.E. TONEY Jr.; Dr. Roy Lee NOBLIN; Dr. Rives W. TAYLOR; Dr. Sam DANIEL; Dr. Julian C. ELLIOTT; Dr. Sam CARRINGTON; Dr. Ballard NORWARD; Dr. E.L. CLAY; Dr. Joe THOMPSON (Creedmoor); Dr. Frank SLAUGHTER (did not practice in Granville County but is a prominent writer).

Dr. Nathaniel Chesley DANIEL, called "Dr. Nat." For more than two weeks, a reporter followed him, imploring for information about himself, and for two weeks Dr. DANIEL insisted that he could not tell about himself, that it might incriminate him. However, it developed that he wasn't such a bad fellow after all; that like most doctors he went to school, worked hard and did well by himself and his profession. After leaving his home at Old Tranquility, northern Granville, he graduated from a boarding school; he attended North Carolina Medical School, now the Medical College of Virginia and then started out to make a living from his profession. He began practicing in Oxford in 1903, but two years later went to New York for special work at Cornell in the Skin Clinic. He also did post graduate work at John Hopkins, Baltimore and at Bellevue Hospital, New York. He came back to Oxford in 1911 and in 1922 was made Medical Director of the Oxford Orphanage. In 1924 the Hicks Memorial Hospital was opened on the Orphanage campus for the care of the sick boys and girls of the Orphanage. Dr. DANIEL was beloved by all who knew him.

Dr. W. Nelson THOMAS received his M.D. degree from the Medical College of Virginia in 1911, but he never stopped going to school. His career was one of activity, progress and hard work. He had a good practice, but as the years went by, he became determined to have a hospital in which he might render more effective service to the sick of this section. In 1919, Dr. G.B. WATKINS, Dr. J.H. BULLOCK and Dr. THOMAS opened Brantwood Hospital, an institution which 18 years later in 1937 became Granville Hospital, a publicly owned and operated institution, realized largely through the efforts of Dr. THOMAS. Besides his work for the hospital, he had a large practice and was active in many civic and business enterprises in the town.

Our heroic doctors in the past have worked hard, particularly during the Flu epidemic in 1918. There were 90 to 100 deaths caused by the flu, many of which occurred because people who waited too long to call a doctor. There were a large number of people who had this disease and there were numerous instances when the doctors would start on a journey in the county, to find people standing by the side of the road, imploring them to visit their sick ones first. For about two weeks all doctors of the county worked 24 hours a day.

Physicians in Granville County today are fortunate to have Granville Hospital to help them care for their patients. The Hospital is a 68 bed health care institution. It is a member of the American Hospital Association and the North Carolina Hospital Association. It is accredited by the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals.

The Chief of Staff for Granville Hospital for 1982 is Dr. Richard Lewis TAYLOR. This is an elected position. Dr. TAYLOR graduated from Oxford High School. He received an AB degree; majoring in English, from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He received his MD degree in Family Practice from the University of North Carolina School of Medicine in 1962. In 1963-64, he served his intern and residency years at Baltimore City Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland. As a Lieutenant, he entered the Navy and served for two years, during the Viet Nam crisis. He then returned to Oxford and began the practice of medicine, having his office with his father, Dr. Rives W. TAYLOR and Dr. Roy L. NOBLIN. Today his office is in the Medical Complex behind Granville Hospital.

Our fine medical staff of the hospital in 1982 follows:

Dr. Richard L. TAYLOR , Chief of Staff	Family Practice
Dr. John W. WATSON , Asst. Chief of Staff	Family Practice
Dr. Paul REEDER , Secretary	General Surgery
Dr. William B. TARRY	Family Practice
Dr. A. AL-KHALDI	Radiologist
Dr. Stephen D. ERTISCHEK	Internal Medicine
Dr. Michel GOUBRAN	Obstetrics and Gynecology
Dr. Joseph LIGHTSEY	Internal Medicine
Dr. D. Michael MAHAN	Family Practice
Dr. R. David NOEL	General Surgery
Dr. Sam DANIEL	Retired

Consulting Doctors:

Dr. Carolyn C. BARKER	Psychiatry
Dr. Jerry L. BARKER Jr.	Dentistry
Dr. Daniel BERNSTEIN	Ophthalmology
Dr. H. Michael JONES	Pathology
Dr. Robert F. NOEL	Surgery
Dr. M.F. SOUKKAR	Gastroenterology
Dr. L. VIJAYA	Urology

Granville County is indeed fortunate to have, today, these dedicated Physicians, who work hard and are trying to continue the traditions of excellence shown by the Physicians who have gone before them.

Information obtained from the Scrap Books of Mr. Francis B. Hays, which are in the North Carolina Room at the Granville County Library and from a report from Granville Hospital.

Condensed Notes
Of the Passing Local Events of the Day
The Public Ledger
January 21, 1890

What is transpiring around and about us, in town and county – The movements and doings of people you know, etc.

- Breaks have been rather small during the past week.
- In some portions of the county the early wheat is being damaged by rust.
- Dr. W.B. ROYALL, of Wake Forest College, is visiting Mrs. F.P. HOBGOOD
- Mr. W.I. NEWTON, of Person county, is now connected with the Centre warehouse.
- It is reported that some of the girls at the Female Seminary have the grippe in a mild form.
- Mrs. Frank P. HOBGOOD has moved to the residence of Mr. R.I. AIKINS, near Rev. R.I. DEVIN'S.
- Mr. Joe MORRIS has purchased a farm of 800 acres near Chase City Va., of Mr. J.Y. RICHARD'S, for $5,000
- Mr. C.F. KINGSBURY has purchased the building lot opposite the Centre warehouse from Mr. C.H. LANDIS.
- We were pleased to meet in our sanctum Saturday, Mr. H.M. LANIER, one of the old reliable "knights of the grip sack."
- Mr. W.R. KIVETT, who has been in town several days, sold his neat cottage near Mr. R.W. LASSITER, Jr's, to Mr. W.C. REED.
- Dr. J.M. EMMETT has been commissioned by the Governor Surgeon of the Third Regiment, N.C.S.G., with rank of Captain.
- Lonnie and Willie GARNER, of Brassfields' township, charged with breaking in a house, are now quietly meditating upon the fact in the county jail.
- Mr. W.A. DAVIS showed us a few days ago one of the largest possums we ever saw, which he shipped to Mr. John M. TAYLOR, of Richmond, Va.
- We learn from the Courier that there is to be two tobacco warehouses built in Roxboro this year, and that the Farmers' Alliance will erect a tobacco factory.
- The track of the A&D Railroad is completed from Norfolk to Danville. The road was formally opened to the public, from Norfolk to Danville on 20th instant.

- Mr. John PARISH, who has been at the North for some time buying an elegant stock of dry goods, notions, shoes, etc., has returned. Look out for what he will have to say at an early date through the columns of the Public Ledger.
- Mr. James T. COZART has associated himself in business with Mr. W.K. THOMAS, and will soon remove his family to Oxford. We welcome Mr. COZART to Oxford, and wish the firm of THOMAS & COZART abundant success in business.
- A correspondent in The Day recommends Stovall as a suitable place for the location of the Baptist College. Stovall is a charming little town, but we hope the good people will join Oxford with a liberal hand and assist in obtaining this grand institution for Oxford.
- The horse attached to the dray of Mr. Spencer SATTERWHITE became frightened Monday morning while the driver was loading up some lumber from the yard of Col. R.J. MITCHELL and ran away demolishing the wagon and breaking down a part of the fence in front of the residence occupied by Capt. R.P. Hughes.
- Mr. W.T. BROGDEN is a live, energetic broker. He will receive in a few days 13 car loads of corn, hay and shipstuff, besides a lot of excellent brands of flour. We hope to see the time come when our farmers can go to their own corn cribs and barns and take therefrom without having to get them from the West. Make this a special object this year Mr. Farmer.
- We are very sorry to learn that Mr. J.Y. PARISH, who has so recently located in Oxford, while out hunting a few days ago, was thrown from his horse to the ground and had his right ankle badly sprained. This is very unfortunate at this particular time, as he is making arrangements to open a store in Oxford in connection with his brother, Mr. John PARISH.
- We regret very much to learn of an accident to Mrs. H.M. LANIER, which occurred some weeks since. In attempting to alight from the hack to board the train at Waynesboro Va., for Oxford, her dress caught, throwing her on her arm and dislocating the elbow and breaking the arm between the elbow and hand. Mrs. LANIER is now improving very fast and will return to Oxford at an early day.

US Bureau of the Census, Eighth Census of the United States: 1860. One bale of ginned cotton weighed 400 pounds Thomas N. ALSTON produced the most tobacco during the year ending June 1, 1860 (86,800 pounds), but since the census provided no information on the size or value of his farm, he is not included in the above list. The farm of Thomas K. THOMAS was valued at $50,000, but the census did not indicate tobacco or cotton production.
