Some Historical Facts about Stovak, NC and Vicinity

Early Settlers

The northern sections of Vance, Person and Granville Counties were settled almost exclusively by Virginians, most of whom were planters, who having used up the fertility of the tobacco land on the York and James Rivers were seeking rich virgin farm land of the Roanoke and Dan River Valleys. Some came to avoid trouble with hostile Indians. Many of the settlers were wealthy planters, others had land grants, a few were small farmers and there were many others including wheelrights, blacksmiths, stone masons, merchants, doctors and some, just plain workers.

Many of them found building sites to their liking on the larger waterways, such as Grassy Creek, Mountain Creek, Big Island Creek and Spewmarrow Creek.

As early as 1750, there were a sufficient number of the Baptist faith to have their own church on northern Grassy Creek, near the Virginia State line.

In 1757, there were enough of the Presbyterian faith to start a church near what is now known as Gela.

By the year 1788, the site of what was later to become the town of Stovall, was fairly well surrounded with settlers. Tax records disclosed that most of them had estates of considerable acreage, while a few were limited to modest holdings. Nearby to the northwest was Abram's Plains, the estate of Colonel Samuel SMITH Sr. containing 3000 acres. About one and one-half miles to the north, was the estate of the Reverend Henry PATTILLO containing 300 acres. Northeast of Bullock was the Henry GRAVES place with 983 acres. Northwest of Mary GRAVES' home with 1212 acres. The plantation of John PENN on Big Island Creek contained 7712 acres. About two miles south of Stovall, lived John STAMPER.

Northeast of Gela was the home of Jonathan KNIGHT who had 682 acres.

Southeast of Gela was the William KNIGHT plantation.

Located northwest of Gela was the estate of James OWEN. In this same general area was located the previously mentioned Grassy Creek Presbyterian Church which was moved to Stovall 100 years later.

In 1789, James HART married Rebecca GRAVES and established a home near a spring on the outskirts of southwest Stovall, near the Graham Branch. The house he constructed was made with shop-made nails and the doors were hung on shop-made hinges. The old house has yielded to time and the elements and has been replaced in recent years. The old graveyard which was located in the front yard, is almost completely hidden by a growth of vines, trees and other vegetation.

As far as can be determined from available records, the HARTS were the first white family in the vicinity of Stovall, and their home was the first building.

It is not known how many children were born to the HARTS, but there were at least two, Maurice and Rebecca.

On April 16, 1831, Maurice HART married Parthenia P. VASE. He was nineteen and she was fifteen years of age. It appears that they moved in with his parents, James and Rebecca HART. Maurice later built and occupied a store which was the first building in Stovall.

The 1850 census shows that he was then the father of three children, James, Rebecca and William, ages 18, 10 and 9 years, respectively. His was the second white family in the village.

In 1832, or 1833, Dr. F.R. GREGORY, age 25, and his wife, Nancy, age 23, came from Virginia and established a plantation home approximately two miles south of Stovall. In time they became the parents of five children, Herbert, Mark, Francis, Mary and William H. "Buck" GREGORY. In later years, two of the children, Francis and William would become active in the town of Stovall.

On February 7, 1835, John Walker STOVALL married Lucy BARNETT and established a plantation home near what is now the northeastern outskirts of Stovall. He and his family were to later play a part in the development of the town which was named for him.

On November 22, 1838, James M. HEGGIE married Mary Ann HUNT and settled in the Island Creek district. They moved to Stovall sometime after 1850, and were among its early settlers.

November 22, 1841, James H. SHOTWELL married Rebecca HART, the nineteen-year old daughter of James and Rebecca GRAVES HART, Stovall's first white settlers, and established a residence in Stovall.

In 1850 or 1851, Dr. A.C. HARRIS and his wife, Martha with their children, Mary, age three and Thomas, age eleven months, moved from Henderson to Stovall where he established a home and an office. He returned to Henderson temporarily in 1852 to help with the yellow fever epidemic of that year.

In 1850 there were a number of families living in the vicinity of, but outside of, what is now Stovall's corporate limits. Between the Arch GREGORY home east of Big Island Creek and the Dr. F.R. GREGORY home south of Stovall, were the homes of W.I. BEAL, Stephen CURRIN and Thomas MATTHEWS. Between the Dr. F.R. GREGORY home and the Maurice HART home, were the homes of William SATTERWHITE and Josiah BEAL. In the Graham Branch and Little Grassy Creek areas, were the homes of William BUFFALO, Rebecca STRUM, James DANIEL (Waterloo), John HART, John KINTON, William WEST, Elijah CURRIN and others.

In the Island Creek area were the homes of Benjamin NORWOOD, Benny OWEN, Samuel WILSON, James WILSON and Joseph BARNETT.

Also living in this area was William B. HUGHES, a merchant, who it is believed ran a store in the building now occupied by Mr. Giles CRUTCHER as a residence.

On September 4, 1865, Wilkins STOVALL, the oldest son of John Walker STOVALL and Lucy BARNETT STOVALL, and a Confederate veteran, married Leonora Ellen TANNER and established a home in Stovall.

February, 20, 1871, Francis R. GREGORY, now Dr. GREGORY, a son of Dr. F.R. and Nancy GREGORY married Julia THORPE, and settled in Stovall where he practiced medicine until his death in 1899.

In 1873, James W. KNOTT of Person County married Elizabeth "Betty" SHOTWELL, the daughter of James H. and Rebecca HART SHOTWELL. They settled in Stovall by moving into the home with the SHOTWELL family.

In 1884, Thomas W. STOVALL, youngest son of John Walker STOVALL married Molly MCGEE and continued to live in Stovall where he ran a store.

Between 1880 and 1888, came colored citizens, Ned PHILLPOT, Charles TAYLOR, George YOUNG, King Solomon TAYLOR, James BULLOCK, Charles WEBB, and others.

After 1888, came W.S. WHITE of Drake's Branch, Virginia and J.T. SPICER of Orange County, North Carolina, both of whom were Southern Railroad employees. Both married and established homes in Stovall.

Mrs. Betty GREGORY moved in with her family. Mr. & Mrs. W.K. JENKINS moved in from Cornwall. W.H. GREGORY married Mary DAVIS of Abram's Plains and settled in Stovall. Others who came were John RHODES, Mr. MCDANIEL and L.D. and E.C. VEAZEY, all of whom were merchants. Also to move in were Mrs. NOBLIN, the Postmistress, and PARHAM, the blacksmith.

There were others who came and did not like what they saw and left for greener fields. There may have been others who stayed and are buried in unmarked graves.

Granville Greetings

Public Ledger, January 5, 1899

Mr. I. HARRIS caught a carp in Tar River that weighed 13 ½ pounds last week.

Mr. & Mrs. Bob DAVIS, of Vance, spent several days in the Xmas with relatives near Fairport.

The inimitable Joseph I. GORDON and his estimable wife visited the family of C. Jefferson BRUMMITT Thursday in Christmas.

Mr. Atlas CASH, Nash county, visited our neighborhood during the holidays, and some of our young ladies are about to conclude that the cash basis is the right principal to do business upon.

We attended the Sunday School at Rehoboth church on Xmas day and found it in a flourishing condition. A Sunday School which can hold its own Christmas is one we should write about.

Mr. Dudley GOOCH and family has moved to the ROBARDS place in Fishing Creek and Saturday evening quite a number of the neighborhood called to see them and were wonderfully pleased with the family.

The Misses Josie and Pattie GILL, of near Gillburg, visited the families of Mr. Billie FLOYD and C.R. CAWTHORN, Esq., during the first days of Xmas, and were greatly admired by all their new made friends and adored by some of the old.

It was our great pleasure on Monday to be at the home of Mr. C.R. CAWTHORN and partook of a most sumptuous dinner he had had prepared for some of his many friends. And am glad to state that his affable son Ben, who had the misfortune to break one of his limbs some three months back, is now able to be on crutches, and will soon be able to be out again.

One of the nicest sociables or candy stews of the season came off at the home of the Misses Ada and Mollie CLAYTON on Friday evening last. It looked as if all the bells of Fishing Creek had assembled for rivalry, and there was nothing save the departure of a few lovely ones at an early hour (for Xmas tides) to mar the happiness of the occasion, but their places were soon supplied by others and no balk occurred further during the festive evening.

Well Christmas has come and gone, and we have passed another mile post on the journey of life. New Years Day, we see now where we might have improved on what has been done, but it is too late, what has been done cannot be undone. We can truthfully say we are at peace with all men and in our heart we have nothing but love for them. Now as we enter the New Year let all of us live more to the honor and glory of the great I am than ever before. And to editor, correspondents and readers of the Public Ledger we send greetings hoping the Public Ledger may spread as the green bay tree.

I've sure gotten old. I've had two bypass surgeries, a hip replacement, new knees. Fought prostate cancer and the shakes. I'm half blind, can't hear anything quieter than a jet engine, take 40 different medications that make me dizzy, winded, and subject to blackouts. Have bouts with dementia. Have poor circulation, hardly feel my hands and feet anymore. Can't remember if I'm 85 or 92. Have lost all my friends. But, thank God, I still have my driver's license!

ALL I Want For Christmas....

Dear Santa:

Don't bring me new dishes;
I don't need a new kind of game,
Genealogists have peculiar wishes;
For Christmas, I just want a surname.

A new washing machine would be great,
But it's not the desire of my life.
I've just found an ancestor's birth date;
What I need now is the name of the wife.

My heart doesn't yearn for a ring
That would put a real diamond to shame.
What I want is a much cheaper thing:
Please give me Mary's last name.

To see my heart singing with joy
Don't bring me a red leather suitcase.
Bring me a genealogist's toy;
A surname, with dates and a place!
