NEW YEARS RESOLUTION

It is New Year's Eve 1852 and [ancestor's name redacted to protect the not-so-innocent] sits at his desk by candlelight. He dips his pen into the ink well and begins to write his New Year's resolutions:

- . No man is truly well-educated unless he learns to spell his name at least three different ways within the same document.
- . I resolve to give the appearance of being extremely well-educated in the coming year
- . I resolve to always alternate my kids' and wife's first and middle names when the census taker comes and to call my children by odd names which he is unable to spell incorrectly.
- . My age is no one's business but my own. I hereby resolve to never list the same age or birth year twice on any document.
- . I resolve to have each of my children baptized in a different church - either in a different faith or in a different parish. Every third child will not be baptized at all or will be baptized by an itinerant minister who keeps no records.
- . I resolve to move to a new town, new county or new state at least once very ten years - just before those pesky enumerators come around asking silly questions. I also resolve that I shall be absent on the night of the census, or if unable to be absent on census night, I shall endeavor to be enumerated twice.
- . I will make every attempt to reside in counties and towns where no vital records are maintained or where the courthouse burns down every few years.
- . I resolve to join an obscure religious cult that does not believe in record keeping or in participating in military service.
- . When the tax collector comes to my door, I'll loan him my pen which has been dipped in rapidly fading blue ink.
- . I resolve that if my beloved wife Mary should die I will marry another Mary.
- . I resolve not to make a will. Who needs to spend money on a lawyer?
- . I resolve to not clutter up good farm pastures with headstones that will just get broken or fade with time anyway.
- . I resolve to come from Ireland (where there are no records or if there are, they can only be examined by visiting the exact village, pleading with the local clergyman - who is hostile to anyone not of his belief - you) and/or require you to hand over a fee equal to or exceeding your yearly income, for one hour's research which may not find anything.
- . I resolve that not only shall I not die in my country of birth, but neither shall my children (yea verily) unto the sixth generation.
- . I resolve that I and most of my family shall die suddenly just before death certification is established, in a parish where easy access to the records ceases the previous year.
- . I resolve that when I die, my children/wife are instructed to give the wrong details for my death certificate.

Sound familiar? Like the Hawkeye and B. J. on MASH, we must see the humor of the situation or we will lose our minds.
